Deadline nears on ideas for sport hub

TIME is running out for residents to have their say on the leisure and recreation facilities they would like to see at the former Cannock Stadium site.

Cannock Chase Council will be developing the site as a community sport and recreation hub and is asking local residents and businesses to fill out an online survey before November 30.

It comes after the Pye Green road facility was removed from the list of land available for housing development in May.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, Cannock Chase Council's culture and sport leader, said: "We want to provide opportunities for residents to enjoy a range of sports and leisure activities on this site.

Opportunity

"We have a wonderful opportunity to create a sport and recreation hub that will benefit the whole community so I appeal to everyone to get involved."

The online survey can be found at https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/stadiumsite. Paper copies are available at the council's Civic Centre reception in Cannock and its area offices in Rugeley and Hednesford. Alternatively, residents can request one by calling 01543 462621.

Councillor in stroke shock

A CANNOCK councillor is recovering after suffering a minor stroke.

Alison Spicer, who represents Heath Hayes and Wimblebury and chairs the district's town centre regeneration policy development committee, was taken ill last Friday while at work at Stoke on Trent City Council.

She had suffered a couple of seizures diagnosed as a minor stroke. Having recovered at the University Hospital of North Staffordshire, Councillor Spicer was back at home on Monday night.

Tributes after death of village stalwart aged 87

Councillor Ted Hodges with his wife Dorothy

A FORMER Cannock Chase district councillor who also served on Norton Canes parish council for more than 20 years has died after a long illness.

Edwin Hodges, known as Ted, was 87 and stood down from his parish council work only last year. He served on the district council for eight years, narrowly losing his Conservative seat to Labour in 2006.

Colleagues across the political spectrum have paid tribute to his kindness and devotion to the people he served.

Fellow parish and district councillor Zaphne Stretton, who sits on the Labour benches, said: "He was a very kind, caring and considerate man who will be missed greatly. He was prolific in his work for others and would stand outside the Co-Op for hours talking to people."

John Beddows, chairman of the Norton Canes parish council, said Mr Hodges was a hugely popular member of the community who was attending party meetings up until a year ago.

First-class

"There is genuine sadness in the village. Teddy was a lovely man who worked hard for the village and did a first-class job," he said.

Mr Hodges worked in an executive role for aircraft component company Hobson's, which was taken over by Lucas Aerospace, in Fordhouses, Wolverhampton. He travelled the world for the firm, spending 18 months in Dallas, Texas, and was also based in Oklahoma and travelled twice to Hawaii.

In his spare time he played drums for the CannockWood and Gentleshaw Music Society.

Mr Hodges died last Friday at the home he shared with wife Dorothy in Norton Canes. They had no children.

Mrs Hodges said: "He was both a gentleman and a gentle man who lived a very full and colourful life."

FAMILY HELP PLEA OVER SUBSIDENCE

A FAMILY living in a home plagued with severe damp and large cracks because of subsidence has made desperate calls for their housing authority to sort out the problem.

The Smallman family live in Boswell Road, Cannock in a semi-detached concrete home built in the 1950s.

A natural fault line runs through the estate, leading to structural problems at the house. It has led to it becoming full of damp, black mould, large cracks, ill fitting windows and doors caused by the subsidence to the home's foundations.

Soaking

Bus driver Paul Smallman, aged 42, lives with his wife Sue, 35, who cares for their two young sons Michael, three, and four-year-old Ashley and her mother Mary Brown, 62, who recently suffered from a stroke and who is currently suffering continuing bouts of bronchitis.

Mr Smallman said: "If you lift the carpet and put your hand down and lift it back up it will be soaking wet.

"We had an engineer come out after asking for ages. Only one turned up and he realised that he couldn't do it all on his own. He left saying he would back soon, but we heard nothing."

by Tom Mason

Mrs Smallman said her mother contracted bronchitis shortly after moving in. She has to regularly use an inhaler, while both young boys are continually getting severe chest infections, she said.

"We need to move out but it doesn't seem like they've done anything to help us," Mrs Smallman said. "It seems like we're playing pass the parcel and I'm the parcel and they keep taking a layer off me."

A spokesman for Sanctuary Housing, which owns the property, said a technician had visited on November 7 to investigate, but in order to check if a leak behind the sink basin might be the cause of the problem the unit would need to be removed, which is a two person job.

"We are working with the tenants to schedule this," she said.

She added: "An independent specialist deemed the property as safe but did recommend some additional work which would take about two days to complete. However, the tenants requested that we wait to carry out the work until they have moved out.

"Mr and Mrs Smallman are registered to be permanently moved within Cannock if one of Sanctuary's properties becomes available.

"In the meantime we have offered alternative accommodation to the family, and by registering with the Choice Based Lettings scheme, the tenants could also have an opportunity to move to one of the homes owned by other housing associations in the area."

Duo's haunting new venture

Susan Jackson, back, and Marina Durant, have opened The Wishing Tree in Rugeley

A PSYCHIC grandmother from Rugeley has opened her own spiritual readings shop – and she believes it is haunted.

Susan Jackson claims to have seen the ghost of a young boy running around The Wishing Tree, which officially opened in Albion Street on Saturday (November 10).

The mother-of-four, who also works as a night care worker at Talbot House Nursing Home, is joined by fellow psychic Marina Durant, who offers tea leaf, palm and crystal ball readings.

The pair met around 30 years ago, when Mrs Jackson was the manager at the Pig and Bell pub on Market Street – now a Chinese takeaway – and Ms Durant was a barmaid.

The shop also sells vintage clothing, wood carvings and homemade bracelets.

Question over lack of Hoard display

CAMPAIGNERS say an exhibition about the Staffordshire Hoard should be staged at The New Art Gallery Walsall to highlight the town's links to the find.

They are set to ask council chiefs on Monday on why there has so far been no exhibition about the Hoard at the gallery.

A group has been set up with the aim of highlighting the Hoard's links to Walsall, in particular the Brownhills area. The largest ever collection of Anglo Saxon gold ever found in the UK, it was was found in Hammerwich, on its border with Brownhills, in July 2009.

Reputation

Brownhills resident Doug Birch is to ask why no such exhibition has yet been held at the New Art Gallery. He said display in Walsall would "contribute significantly to the regeneration and reputation of Walsall borough as well as providing residents with a good reason to visit the publicly-funded gallery."

Mr Birch, who has compiled historical information about the Hoard and its links to Brownhills, said: "Walsall has been very slow in taking up the possibility of an exhibition on the Hoard.

"We feel this is still something that should be pursued."

Olympian in visit to pool

OLYMPIC swimmer Liam Tancock will be giving a session to swimmers at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre next weekend.

Tancock, who has won countless commonwealth and international gold medals will provide tips to Chase Swimming Club next Saturday (November 24).

Club spokesmen Darren Simkin said: "Its absolutely brilliant to have him come down."

Tancock will be visiting the pool in Saredon Road from 12.45- 4.15pm.

GERMAN ELECTRIC HEATING IS THE ANSWER

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty workboots. This incredible heating simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house!

Get your free info pack right away by calling 01889 576732.

Is electric heating expensive to run? You'll be amazed! Electric heating has never looked like this before, however, this is not new, it has been a mainstream form of heating for a very long time in Germany and Austria and for many people actually in preference to central heating with gas, oil or even Economy 7

More than 500 people marched through Rugeley to honour the fallen

Thousands pay their respects to war dead

THOUSANDS of people gathered across the region to pay their respects to the country's war dead.

Events to mark the Royal British Legion's Remembrance Day started on Saturday in Cannock.

Members of the Army, Royal Navy, Royal Air Force and police paraded from the leisure centre to the town centre cenotaph where a guard of honour had been organised.

Local military veterans, youth organisations and members of the emergency services stood at the cenotaph, changing over every hour.

A parade led by the Salvation Army band marched around the town centre ending at the war memorial.

Ex-servicemen, members of St John Ambulance, students from South Staffordshire College, Guides, Cubs and Brownies all took part.

A short service was led by Rev Peter Hart while poppy wreaths were laid at the foot of the cenotaph, standards were raised and the band played the Last Post and Reveille.

A two-minute silence was held at 11am followed by an hour-long service at St Luke's Church in the town centre.

Special

Ex-serviceman Trevor Evans, parade marshal for the Hednesford branch of the Staffordshire Regimental Association, also released a dove. Mr Evans, aged 66, said: "It is most important we remember and with the Staffordshire Regiment returning to Afghanistan next year, it was even more special."

Nine-year-old Luke Westwood, who is a member of the 1st Blackfords Sea Scout group in Chadsmoor, was one of the youngsters who took part in the parade.

His father Roger Westwood, 52, of Watling Street, Cannock, said: "There's been a good turnout. It's very important for the little ones to see it as well."

Sheila Dunning, organiser and secretary of the Royal British Legion in Cannock, said the event had drawn an "exceptional" crowd this year.

Remembrance parades were also held on Sunday in Hednesford, Burntwood and Rugeley, where more than 500 people gathered to take part in the march through the town.

Fire was started in block of flats

A MAN has admitted starting a blaze at a block of flats in Hednesford which caused neighbours to flee.

Eric Bougen, aged 32, started the fire in his friend's flat in Wilcox Avenue, causing more than £18,000 of damage, Stafford crown court heard. He will be sentenced on May 7.

Tenant Jon de Luca-Bossa woke up and fled from the blaze. Bougen was rescued from the bathroom by firefighters.

Lindsey Whitehouse, who lived in the flat above, smelled smoke and burning at around 10.30pm on January 10. She woke her partner and they fled with her six-month-old baby.

Mr Paul Farrow, prosecuting, said both men had been drinking and they fell asleep on the settee.

Bougen, who is now living in a secure centre for alcoholics, told police he lit some paper so he could see in the dark. He admitted arson being reckless as to whether life was endangered.

In mitigation, Mr Stephen Bailey, said Bougen had been drinking "catastrophic" amounts of alcohol.

Getting into festive spirit

CHASE residents can get in the festive spirit with two special events at the Museum of Cannock Chase.

The attraction, in Valley Road, Hednesford, opens its doors for a Winter Wonderland event on Sunday, November 18. It will feature nature-themed craft activities for the whole family from noon to 3pm at a cost £1 per child, adults free.

On Sunday December 2, the museum hosts a Christmas Family Day with festive crafts, storytelling, face painting, puppet shows and stalls. It will run from noon to 4pm.

Go-ahead given for memorial

HELP is needed to find information on the men of Burntwood who lost their lives in Britain's conflicts.

The plea follows the go-ahead for a long-awaited memorial stone to be erected for next year's Remembrance service.

The monument will recognise those that have fought in modern conflicts and will be placed at Burntwood Institute in Rugeley Road. Currently, there is only a small plaque remembering those who died during the First World War.

Families of those who fought in the Second World War, Palestinian conflict, operations in Northern Ireland and Iraq are asked to provide vital information.

The names of the fallen include Charles Bailey, Kenneth Dorset, Alan Grimley, Stanley Lee, Donald Lees, Ronald Lysons, Clifford Philpott, David Sammons, John Shorthouse, Richard Weston, John Workman, Franciszek Kempa, Ronald Faunch, Billie Mitchel, John Patterson, David Walker and Kevin Maine.

Donations are also required to help with some of the final touches. Call 01543 672763 or email burntwood.bmca@btconnect.com

Fine food and drink

FABULOUS food and drink and local crafts will all be on offer in Penkridge this weekend.

The fine food and craft event takes place at the Penkridge Market site on Saturday (November 17) from 9am to 4pm. It will feature local goods from cheeses, breads and olives, to homemade cakes, pies and preserves.

Fresh farm produce like meat, poultry, eggs, game, and pies will also be on offer, while craft stalls will include handmade jewellery, vintage gifts, cards, cushions, homeware and handpainted pots.

Shop fundraiser

A CHARITY event in aid of lung cancer takes place in Cannock next month. Soul Care Aesthetics, in High Green Court, is staging the event on December 8 from 10am. It will feature a sponsored waxing, champagne and cakes, free gifts and a raffle as well as advice from consultants and discounts on all aesthetic treatments booked on the day.

Double delight as extension curries favour

The Dilshad restaurant in Chadsmoor

AN award-winning Indian restaurant in Cannock is now offering customers double the delight after undergoing a £50,000 extension.

The Dilshad restaurant, in Cannock Road, Chadsmoor, has undergone the major extension after its owner purchased the former Bargain Booze shop next door.

The transformation has enabled the restaurant to more than double in size from 48 seats to 100. It will see at least four jobs created with positions in the kitchen, front of house waiters and bar staff.

The kitchen has been relocated and a special area has been created for party bookings. The Dilshad will keep its bar but is also now offering customers the opportunity to bring in their own alcohol if they choose.

Owner Tony Uddin is planning a grand reopening in January and will stage a charity night.

He said: "We have been planning to extend the restaurant for quite some time due to customer demand but we have waited for the right time to do it.

"When an opportunity came up to purchase the former Bargain Booze shop next door we jumped at the chance. We have now gone from a 48 seater restaurant to 100 seats. The extension has cost £50,000 plus and we are absolutely delighted with the Dilshad's new look.

"We wanted to ensure that when we did make the changes we didn't lose the Dilshad's unique ambience and from what customers have been telling us we certainly haven't. Feedback has been absolutely brilliant and we are delighted.

Since its opening in 1979 the Dilshad, home to the UK's hottest curry The Inferno, has won a clutch of awards. This year the restaurant won the West Midlands final of the Tiffin Cup. Chef Piara Miah cooked for MPs and celebrities at the House Of Commons for the UK grand final.

Library move into college ruled out by county chiefs

CANNOCK Library will stay at its present location for the forseeable future after it was revealed proposals to move it to a college campus in the town have been dropped.

A feasibility study had been set up to look into creating a larger library based at South Staffordshire College's campus in The Green.

by Marion Brennan

It has now been decided the move would be too expensive and bosses at Cannock Chase District Council have welcomed the decision.

The location change had been put forward by Staffordshire County Council, which oversees library services.

Study

The £6 million redevelopment of the college had been seen as an opportunity to improve services.

But county councillor Pat Corfield, cabinet member for culture and communities, confirmed the library would stay in Manor Avenue after the feasibility study showed it would not give value for money to taxpayers. He said: "At a time when many local authorities up and down the country are threatening to close libraries, we will continue to invest in the county's library services to provide the maximum benefit to our communities."

Cannock council leader George Adamson spoke of his relief at the decision. "This is excellent news," he said.

"I had my concerns that the people who currently use the library wouldn't mix well with hundreds of young students milling about.

"It would have been a noisier environment. It wasn't a popular choice and there was talk of launching a petition but happily this will no longer be necessary."

Craft event to help fund Santa Special

BURNTWOOD Lions hold their 10th annual craft and gift fair this weekend. It takes place from 10am to 3pm on Saturday, November 17 at Burntwood Memorial Hall, Rugeley Road.

There will be more than 50 stalls with a wide variety of offerings from hand-made cards to jewellery, textiles, handbags, hats and scarves, seasonal decorations, children's toys, teddies, clocks, paintings, candles, garden ornaments, preserves and cakes.

The Erasmus Darwin Jazz Band will entertain visitors between 11am and 1pm. Admission is £1 for adults and under 12s free. Refreshments will be available and proceeds will fund the Santa Special for more than 200 disabled and disadvantaged children at Chasewater Railway on December 1. For more ring Lion Cindy Barnsley on 01543 671949.

Cannock child actor Ben Wilby, who plays the role of Bob, at the UK Premiere of Nativity 2: Danger In The Manger at The Empire Cinema, Leicester Square

Ben's on red carpet

A CHILD actor from Cannock has been rubbing shoulders with the stars at the premiere of his latest film.

Ten-year-old Ben Wilby, who became familiar with film fans when he starred in the hit 2009 comedy Nativity!, has reprised his role as Bob, in Nativity 2: Danger in the Manger.

The St Mary's RC Primary School pupil joined co-star David Tennant in London's Leicester Square where he spoke to news and TV crews before watching himself on the big screen.

Ben's mother Jill said: "The premiere was amazing. Ben felt just like a star. He loved talking to the press and being interviewed, he wasn't nervous at all.

"The film is wonderful. There's definitely a lot more action and adventure than the first one. We'd seen clips of it before but to see it all put together was amazing."

Ben recently appeared on ITV1 breakfast show Lorraine where he spoke about furthering his acting career.

Jill added: "Ben wants to attend the Sylvia Young Theatre School in London and this time next year, he could be there. We just need a sponsor."

NEWS in brief

Christmas fair held at church

SO it's official. The Government is so committed to the idea of Police Commissioners that they don't really care whether you vote or not on November 15. Home Secretary Theresa May says there is no question of the elections being declared void no matter how few people vote. Yet I detect no enthusiasm at all to elect candidates we have never heard of into £100,000-a-year jobs that probably don't need doing on the strength of policies that have not been properly explained, using an electoral process which was roundly rejected in last year's AV referendum.

ONE of life's little milestones came around, the renewal of my passport. One thing has changed in 10 years; the instructions for the photograph are now very stern. There must be no smiling, no reflective spectacles, no headgear and the head must be kept bolt upright. This is a bit of a blow to those of us who look particularly dashing smiling whimsically over the top of our reading glasses from beneath the brim of a mole-skin fedora. The passport snaps turned out as grim as I expected but at least I appear to be alive, unlike in my 2002 passport photo which looks like a death mask. In years to come archaeologists will be puzzled by the curious discovery that, although foreign holidays were supposed to be happy events, the only people who went on them looked really miserable.

FOUR more years. As President Obama looks ahead to his new term, does he pause to reflect on the bright, well-educated, sophisticated population of 315 million Americans he leads? A friend is just back from a holiday in the tropics which included one day swimming with the dolphins. An American lady announced loudly: "I read the Bible and the Bible tells me that after I die I will spend all my days swimming with dolphins, and that is why this is so important to me." And she's got the vote. God Bless America.

IF you, the readers of this column, are surprised by lines such as "a fan club" and "you're a big girl's blouse" in Anachronism Abbey (ITV), why on earth do experienced actors not rebel? Before every episode of Downton the cast read through the script, sitting around a table. Surely at that stage these modern phrases must jar terribly. Does no-one have the nerve to point out to Julian Fellowes that his scripts are less than perfect?

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

ANYWAY, for all its curious turns of phrase, Downton has been the best thing on telly for years. It was one of those series you just wanted to go on and on. I must assume that Mr Bates will finally admit his guilt as a murderer in the Christmas edition (or Winterval Holiday Special as Fellowes may call it).

Steve looking to build on success

A SITE manager from Rugeley has won a coveted regional housebuilding award.

Steve Malkin was the western region winner in the National House Building Council's annual Pride in the Job Awards in the Single Plot category. The awards were held at Birmingham's ICC.

The 53-year-old father-of-three won the award for overseeing the construction of Oakwood, an exclusive 4,400sq ft contemporary home worth £1.25m in Solihull.

Steve has worked in the building industry for 37 years and has spent the last nine years with Cameron Homes as a site manager.

The NHBC Pride in the Job Awards are dedicated to housebuilding site management in the UK. Neil Jefferson, customer and business development director, said: "Steve should be rightly proud of his achievement." Steve said: "This award makes me feel proud and pleased to know the effort and hard work of myself, my team and the company put into producing homes with high quality finishes has been acknowledged."

He and eight other regional winners progress to the Supreme Gala event in London in January where five UK supreme winners will be announced.

Dodgeball craze takes off thanks to hit film

BEN Stiller's eccentric antics, outrageous outfits and Hulk Hogan-inspired moustache as White Goodman gave the little-known phenomenon of dodgeball a worldwide audience.

Now it seems the sport has discovered a genuine fan base in the region. Growing numbers of players are turning out each week at Chase Leisure Centre in Stafford Road, Cannock to do battle in the fledgling Midland Dodgeball League, set up less than two months ago.

Interest in the sport, generated through social networking sites, has taken off to such an extent that organiser Pete Malloy is already planning to launch a second weekly session after a great response.

Last week, eight teams assembled for their Tuesday night combat sessions, which are open to both sexes and all ages.

Appetite

The game simply involves two groups of six taking it in turns to hurl balls at each other with the aim of striking opponents anywhere on their body.

One by one, the players are eliminated until the last is left standing and a winner is declared.

Sports coach Mr Malloy decided to see if there was an appetite for the activity after youngsters at the primary schools where he spends his day job thoroughly embraced the sport.

"Seeing how the children enjoyed it, I thought it was worth trying with a few friends," the 30-year-old said. "I guess it's popular because it's a bit different.

"There are a lot of football leagues out there but not everyone wants to play football and this is great fun," said Mr Malloy, of Reservoir Road, Hednesford.

His fiancée, florist Amelia Littler, helps organise the hire of the hall and does the league admin. Teams are charged £15 for each night's competition.

She said it was hoped a Wednesday night league would also be set up to meet demand. The 27-year-old, who works at Centre Flowers in Cannock, said: "It brings an eclectic mix of people together and it's a good workout – they take it very seriously."

Service engineer Eddie Dickin, 26, made the journey from his home in High Street, Cheslyn Hay for last week's game. "The only other sport I do is surfing," he said. "I saw the film and thought it looked fun.

"I'm going to get a team for the Wednesday – I just need another two players and I won't struggle to find them."

Prison officer Jessica Bent, 25, has been going along since week one. She said: "It's great that there's something to do indoors for the winter and that it's mixed sex."

Sports coach Rhys Gittins, aged 21, of High Mount Street, Hednesford, was coaxed into joining the league. He said: "I play football as well and have been coming to do this for about four weeks. It's fun."

Santas to cut a dash in village fundraiser

SANTAS will be running through Penkridge as part of a new fundraising initiative next month.

Penkridge and District Round Table has launched the new event in its community calendar. It will take place on Sunday, December 2 and is open to anyone wishing to dress in Santa costume, complete with beard, and take the half-mile route through the village. All money raised will go to charities and local good causes.

Mark Cooper, from Penkridge Round table said: "The event is purely for fun, rather than being a competitive event. Unlike the popular village Fun Run we hold in June each year, there'll be no timing and no race numbers. Instead spectators will see dozens of Santa's sprinting through the streets of Penkridge."

Penkridge Round Table will be selling Santa suitsfor £5, at the Penkridge Victorian Fayre on Friday November 30 at the village market site. Suits are also available from Stone Cross store Sew Many Things during opening hours.

For more on the event visit the Penkridge Round Table website at www.penkridge.roundtable.co.uk

Home items at low cost

LOW-cost everyday items for the home are being demonstrated in Penkridge tomorrow (Friday).

Emily Simmonds from the Bilbrook At Home shop will be showing off their 'Box of Trix' to members of Pace 2000 at the Haling Dene Centre, in Cannock Road, from 3pm.

On show will be low-cost items for the kitchen, bathroom or for personal help, designed to make daily life simpler. They will be available to buy or order. Tea and biscuits will be served.

Flower club date

'WOODEN it be nice' is the title of Sharon Nolan's demonstration to Penkridge Flower Club next Monday (November 19). The meeting is at the Peace Memorial Hall, Pinfold Lane, at 7.30pm. Cost for visitors is of £5.50 including light refreshments. There will also be a sales table.

Soldiers set for march of freedom

HUNDREDS of soldiers and veterans will march through Cannock next summer to receive the freedom of the district.

Cannock Chase Council unanimously agreed at a special meeting last week to honour the 3rd Battalion The Mercian Regiment, formerly known as the Staffords, and Staffordshire Regimental Association.

The veterans requested that they march together with the Staffords, who will just have returned from a tour in Afghanistan. It is believed it will be the first dual ceremony of its kind to include both serving and ex-personnel.

Colour

Council leader George Adamson said the: "It will be a tremendous day, full of colour. I know the town will turn out for it."

The "once-in-a-lifetime" event is expected to take place in June.

He said each group would be awarded the freedom of the district.

Councillor Adamson said the event would cost around £15,000 and would be taken out of next year's budget,

"We may be able to pare the cost down a little more but I don't think anyone is going to criticise the amount."

Youngsters remember

CHILDREN in Penkridge enjoyed a 'Soldier Day' in the run-up to Remembrance Sunday.

The youngsters attended Little Treasures Day Nursery dressed in red or camouflage gear and made poppy biscuits, medals, crosses and poppy wreaths.

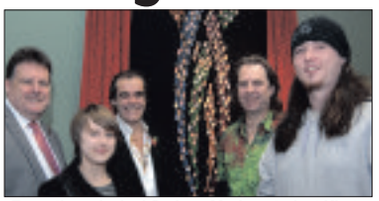
The three-to-five-year-olds then walked to the village's St Michaels and All Angels Church to lay their poppy wreath.

They also took part in a sponsored obstacle course to raise money for 'Help for Heroes'. Grandparents went in to the nursery to join in the singing of some army songs.

Chorus concert

THE Cannock Festival Chorus Christmas concert will take place on Saturday, December 1. It will be held at Trinity Church in Station Road, Hednesford, from 7.30pm. Tickets are £5 and will be available on the door, or can be bought in advance from Jim Brooks on 01543 422742.

College students see teaspoon mural unveiled



Executive principal Graham Morley, student Kirsty Axten, Simon Price, course co-ordinator Andy Nash and student Sean Anderson with the mural

A MURAL made entirely with teaspoons by South Staffordshire College students has been unveiled at the newly-refurbished Rodbaston Hall.

First year art and design Level 3 extended diploma students designed, painted and produced the unique artwork consisting of 320 teaspoons provided by local supplier Arthur Price, to create a large scale design of the South Staffordshire College logo.

Each spoon was hand-painted with miniature portraits of college staff and students and incorporates all four corporate campus colours on the handles.

Andy Nash, art and design course co-ordinator, said: "The students worked tirelessly from the initial brief, and the combination of research, design and practical skills helped them create a unique and original artwork," he said.

Meanwhile, 10 South Staffordshire College students have made it through tough regional rounds to represent their sectors at The WorldSkills UK National Finals 2012.

Ashley Brain and Jamie Malia from are both studying horticulture at the Rodbaston Campus and will compete in the landscape gardening category from today (Thursday) until November 17 at the NEC in Birmingham.

Isabel Garbett from Burntwood will represent the college in floristry, while Nicola Cornwall from Cannock and Alice Enifer from Brownhills compete in hairdressing. Five beauty students will also compete, namely Kayleigh Johnson, Chloe Bowdler, Jordan Hunter, Sarah Lea and Gemma Clark.

The national finals form part of The Skills Show at the NEC, for which the college is a sponsor. Tickets are free. Visit www.southstaffs.ac.uk/skills-show or call 0845 475 1500.

Popular town pub saved as new licensee takes the helm

A POPULAR Cannock pub has been saved from closure by a new licensee and will begin a comprehensive refurbishment in the New Year.

Around 15 members of staff at the Shoal Hill Tavern on Sandy Lane will keep their jobs. A further 10 will be taken on to provide the highest quality of service thanks to licensee Andrew Crump, who has more than 15 years in the pub trade.

The Shoal Hill Tavern, in Sandy Lane

The pub's future looked uncertain until Mr Crump took it on.

Thwaites Brewery of Blackburn had been looking at converting the pub into a residential property if they could find a suitable licensee.

Mr Crump has spoken to locals who, he said felt the pub had been somewhat neglected and was in need of some tender loving care.

"I love the pub and I love the area with its pleasant walks and beautiful countryside," he added.

The pub will introduce an innovative rustic fine dining menu with an emphasis on fresh, local and seasonal produce, complemented by five regional guest ales.

Entice

Head chef Ricky Guld said: "My ethos when it comes to cooking is that the meals should be filling but still stylish."

The pub will be open all day everyday serving lunch dinner and afternoon tea and will also introduce daily deals to entice customers back to the once busy pub.

An investment of £250,000 has been put aside for the start of the New Year. It will be used to fund a major refurbishment and possible redesign of the premises which has not had any major work carried out in seven years.

Mr Crump said he hoped to bring back the good times to one of Cannock's best known pubs.

Wood carving at wildlife HQ

A WOOD carving course is being held at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's headquarters next month.

The two day course runs on December 5 and 6 between 9am and 5pm at the Wolseley Centre, near Rugeley. It is aimed at total beginners and those who want to improve their skills.

Tuition will be given by Sharon Littley, a professional wood carver and author.

Sam Pachner, fundraising assistant at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust said: "At the end of the course we want everybody to have something they can take away with them."

The course fee is £100, with half of the proceeds going towards the work of Staffordshire Wildlife Trust.

Students are free to bring any tools they wish to use, with wood provided by the course leader.

Store staff raise glass to 20 years

Front, Jean Pilkington, left and Rose Taplin, managers of the St Giles Hospice shop in Upper Brook Street, Rugeley, raise a glass with staff to celebrate the shop's 20th anniversary

A BUSY charity shop in Rugeley town centre is celebrating 20 years of raising funds for West Midland hospices.

The shop in Upper Brook Street supports St Giles Hospice, a charity which runs two hospices one in Goscote, Walsall and another in Whittington near Lichfield which together provide 39 beds for terminally ill patients.

To celebrate staff and volunteers will raise a glass and a slice of cake to recognise the important work carried out in the store since 1992 that along with the charities other shops across the region has raised over £10 million.

Accessories

One of a number of shops supporting the cause, the Rugeley store stocks a choice of high-quality second-hand items, including clothing and accessories, gifts, household items, books and a large range of Christmas cards. Lynwen Truesdale, Head of Retail for St Giles Hospice, said: "Our helpful staff and volunteers have worked tirelessly over the last two decades to create a welcoming environment that our loyal customers love returning to time and time again.

"Special thanks must go to all those who have donated or purchased goods from our shop since its opening day – and we're looking forward to welcoming both new and returning shoppers for many years to come."

NEWS in brief

Toddlers helping Children In Need

NURSERY children in Cannock are enjoying a week of activities for Children In Need.

Events began on Monday, with the youngsters at Happy Tots in Bridgtown baking Pudsey cakes and biscuits.

Activities at the Orbital Plaza nursery have continued with a Teddy Bears' picnic, dressing up as Pudsey, a Children In Need party and wearing favourite pyjamas.

Manager Kate Hodges said: "The children love dressing up, playing games and baking biscuits – so it's nice that they can do their bit to help other children while having a fun time."

Messy church is one year old

MESSY church sessions in Hednesford are celebrating their first birthday. The next one takes place on Sunday, November 18, with a theme of advent.

The two-hour session takes place at Trinity Church, Station Road, from 3pm and will include crafts, stories, songs and food.

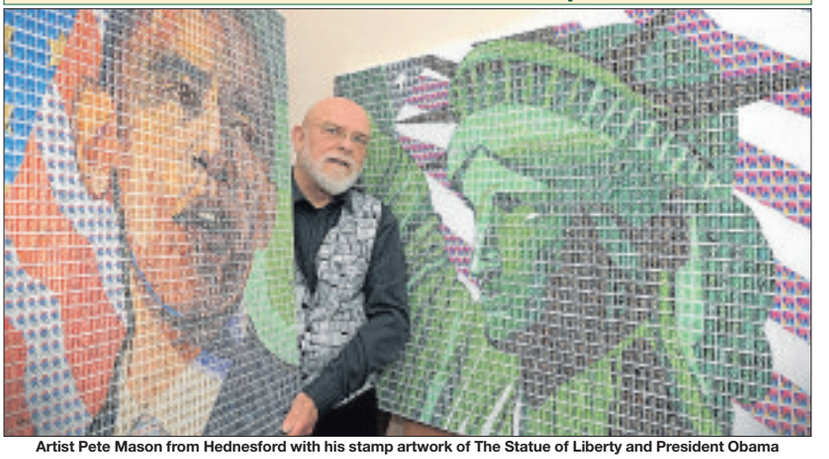
Artist unveils stars and stamps creations



Artist Pete Mason from Hednesford with his stamp artwork of The Statue of Liberty and President Obama

STAMP artist Peter Mason has unveiled his latest creations – the Statue of Liberty and United States president Barack Obama.

The retired 67-year-old art teacher from Green Heath Road, Hednesford used 6,000 stamps to create the pieces of art, which he hopes will be taken by Ripley's Museum, in New York, which specialises in bizarre and unusual items. The Statue of Liberty picture took Pete almost six weeks to complete. Each stamp has to be cut and shaped perfectly before being glued into place.

He has also used 29 cent American stamps, featuring the Statue of Liberty, in the stripes of the American flag.

Fund exceeds its targets

A MEMORIAL fund set up by the parents of a Cheslyn Hay boy who died of meningitis has reached £125,000 – way beyond the original expectations of organisers.

Liam Keeling's parents Andy and Georgina Keeling paid tribute to fundraisers but also turned their attention to raising awareness of the killer disease as the winter months approach. Liam died in October 2009, two weeks after turning 13. He was Liam, a Year 8 pupil at Cardinal Griffin RC High School in Cannock and played football for Wyrley Panthers.

Mr and Mrs Keeling set up a fund to raise money for Meningitis UK.

The money is aimed at helping the charity reach its £7million target to fund research into a vaccine for the strain B form of the disease which killed Liam.

Liam Keeling Forever Fund committee member Richard Holmes said: "We have massively surpassed our targets. We never expected to raise this amount in such a short time."

The next fundraiser is at Old Wyrley Hall on November 24 with music from local band, The Primes. The committee will also be hosting its annual Charity Sporting Evening at Walsall FC on March 1 next year.

Mr and Mrs Keeling have vowed to continue fundraising until a vaccine is found for the strain B form. Mrs Keeling also urged other parents to be vigilant and keep watching for the signs of the disease.

Council rejects plan to reward model citizens

COUNCIL bosses have turned down the the chance to reward model citizens on the housing waiting list rather than penalise troublemakers.

District chiefs say the scheme would be too difficult to judge.

The idea, which would have seen good neighbours or community-minded residents given priority for houses, has been rejected by Cannock Chase District Council's housing committee.

Shadow housing leader Councillor Jodie Jones criticised the move and is urging people raise the issue in a consultation on changes in the way homes are allocated.

She said: "I believe this type of recognition being incorporated into the council's allocations policy would be very good for Cannock Chase.

Benefit

"Those who have made contributions to the community should be recognised and rewarded.

"I believe that the council could use this new provision to ensure those who give their time to benefit local people are not left languishing on ever-growing waiting lists and given less priority than those known to be nuisance neighbours."

Councillor Jones claimed the criteria for determining who to exclude on bad behaviour grounds was too lenient and urged those in agreement to respond to the consultation on the revised allocations policy, asking the council to incorporate it.

Foodbank project boost

Irene Lomas, Rugeley Foodbank volunteer Marjorie Judd, care assistant Dan Sargeant and Rugeley Foodbank co-ordinator Dave Webb

A CARE home in Hednesford has come forward to help boost a foodbank.

Windsor House at Marquis Court, in Littleworth Road, has agreed to become a drop-off point for donations to the Rugeley Community Church scheme. The foodbank has distributed 860 meals to 86 needy residents since it was formed in June.

Items can now be dropped off at Windsor House and then taken to the church.

Winter walk is launched

A NEW winter walk is being launched at Chasewater next month, organised by the Live Life, Live Younger programme run by Age UK South Staffordshire. The first one-and-a-half hour trek through the beauty spot will be held on December 1, meeting at 10am at the Chasewater Innovation Centre.

LETTERS

Excessive building is the fault of district

I AM grateful to Councillor Constable for his description of me as, young and enthusiastic (Letters, November 1).

I'm certainly the latter, if not the former, though perhaps youth is relative to someone like Councillor Constable, who's been around since Adam was a lad.

His length of service however, does not mean he is right.

Ask any of the residents of Burntwood who is responsible for excessive building, in the past, without proper community facilities and they will tell you it's Lichfield District Council, which has been Conservative-controlled for pretty much all of the last 30 plus years.

Councillor Constable simply confirms all I said in my original letter – the Conservatives are completely out of touch.

Support for planners' decision

I HAVE to disagree with E Davies in The Chronicle of November 1 with their views that Penkridge is in a time-warp.

I have only lived in the village for the last few years but am already tired of the volume of traffic and the noise and nuisance it creates.

I fail to see why the village requires a new store and petrol station when the village is already more than adequately supplied.

Reference is made to the endless flow of supermarket home delivery vans around the area but what the author fails to realise is that many people are too busy or simply find it more convenient to shop in this way.

To me, it does not prove that people are yelling out for a local supermarket.

I certainly do not want new a supermarket in the village and feel that there are more than enough in the local area. I often shop at the local Co-Op store and find it meets my weekly needs.

In my opinion, why create more and more competition running the risk of losing the smaller stores we already have?

E Davies refers to the problems we already encounter and how this has to be endured and yet seems happy to further increase the amount of traffic and people attracted to the village. I find this a contradiction and absolute nonsense.

I fully support the decision of the local councillors and hope that they continue with their current thinking.

Make stance clear is the call to candidate

I WAS interested to read that Janos Toth, the newly-selected Labour parliamentary candidate for Cannock Chase, attended the recent rally in London to protest the Government's austerity-related cuts.

At the end, the rally was addressed by Ed Miliband who was roundly booed for stating the quite obvious fact that were Labour in power they would also have to make cuts to public services. I think the public deserves to know whether the would-be Labour MP was one of those booing his leader or whether he also accepts that cuts need to be made if the long-term financial health of this country is to be restored without placing a crushing debt burden on our children and grandchildren. The voters of Cannock Chase District Council also need to know his true position.

Further demise of NHS

I REFER to Aidan Burley's plan for the future of Cannock Hospital. The MP's plan to reduce an £8m annual deficit by renting out rooms to general practitioners, schools and councils is not the answer to the problems facing the NHS.

To my mind, it will only lead to the further demise of the NHS as we know it. What is needed is a reversal of the coalition's plan to force a £20bn efficiency drive, which in real terms are cuts to pave the way for privatisation of the NHS.

The Health and Social Care Act is designed to deprive the NHS of desperately-needed funds to treat all free at source and will result in those with financial clout receiving preferential treatment, while the rest of us suffer and wait.

The electorate would appreciate Mr Burley more if he spent more time opposing cuts that are stifling growth and causing hardship.

Election a waste of public money

RE: Election of Police and Crime Commissioner for Staffordshire

I have just received my voting papers for the above public office. I knew it was in the pipeline but other than the voting papers arriving I have seen no information on what duties these people are expected to carry out.

To make matters worse I have no idea who the candidates are and now only know their names because of the voting paper.

There has been no publicity on these people, no in-depth profile on their careers and suitability to act on my behalf in this public office, other than their political alliance.

How can one make a reasonable judgement with the complete lack of this important information?

Therefore I will not take up my right to vote and the paperwork will go for recycling.

What a waste of public money to run such an inefficient event, I will be interested to hear the turnout figures.

Comparison 'an insult'

NOT satisfied at being one of the highest MPs' expenses claimants in the county, Aidan Burley now thinks he should have an 80 per cent discount in his office rates, at a cost to every council taxpayer. But his biggest insult is to compare his office to the Cannock Chase Advice Centre, which is run by unpaid volunteers.

Project champions community spirit

Face-painted Olivia Dale, aged six, with a spider she had made at the arts and crafts stall

Cannock Chase Council Chairman Bob Todd is joined for the initiative by Sean Armstrong and Caroline Wain, both aged 16

The residents enjoyed Love Your Street – in spite of the rain

A CELEBRATION of community spirit was held in Brereton as part of Cannock Chase's first Love Your Street project.

It took place in five streets during half-term and was organised by Cannock Chase Council through the Chase Community Partnership.

It included a Halloween-themed 'Celebrate Your Street' event with live music and a disco, games, face painting, balloon modelling, storytelling, arts and crafts and fancy dress.

Residents could also raise community concerns with councillors, police and firefighters.

A 'week of action' followed in Springhill Terrace, Kelly Avenue, Newman Grove, Ravenhill Terrace and Coulthwaite Way with firefighters offered free home fire risk checks and police officers giving out crime prevention advice.

Councillor Mike Holder, Cannock Chase Council's crime and partnerships leader, said: "I'd like to thank people in Brereton for embracing Love Your Street."

The first Black Country council housing (W'ton Archives) which is now the site of the Evans car showroom in Wolverhampton (seen above)

History is preserved in these 'ordinary' streets

Landscape Archaeologist
The distinctly black country network

Wandering around the Black Country (as I do) it's all too easy to miss the history preserved in apparently ordinary streets.

One story not often told, but particularly important to the area is the history of council housing.

Every third home in the Black Country was built by a local authority and for the first three quarters of the 20th century the figure was nearer a half. So, hundreds of thousands of family histories are tied up with this particular kind of architecture.

Despite its far-reaching implications, the first chapter in the story of council housing in the Black Country hasn't left us much of a visible legacy. In fact its beginnings are now only archaeology, inauspiciously buried under an unmarked car park in Wolverhampton.

Soon after the first council house was built in London in the late 19th century, Wolverhampton Borough commissioned a terrace of cottage tenements. Between 1902 and the First World War they stood alone as the only municipal housing in the Black Country. Demolished in the 1980s, the site on the Birmingham Road is now a car dealer's forecourt.

Despite this loss, most council houses built in the Black Country are still around today (as opposed to council flats, which have not lasted so well). So we can put together a story of the rest of the 20th century in surviving buildings.

Different

The candidates for the oldest standing council houses in the Black Country all originate in the plans for the end of the First World War, the start of widespread house-building by municipalities.

Complicating the picture in the Black Country were the literally dozens of councils covering the area. Each had a slightly different approach and probably used different architects.

Examples built before 1920 include the houses on Kate's Hill, Dudley and on Stream Park, Kingswinford.

The experience of house building in the inter-war years also differed between Black Country councils: those on the coalfield like Bilston, Darlaston and Tipton struggled to find suitable land and often had to level pit mounds and the topping of shafts before they could plan new estates.

Even then they had to avoid canals and railways criss-crossing the area leading to estates being severed from older settlements, such as the so-called 'Lost City' in Tipton. Houses built next to the canal at Rough Hay, Darlaston were typical of those built on former colliery land in the 1920s.

By contrast, in the days before the green belt, towns around the edge of the 'Black Country proper' were able to plan larger estates expanding over farmland. Bristnall near Smethwick and the kilometre-long Low Hill estate near Wolverhampton are legacies of this approach.

Part two of the spotlight on council homes will be in a future edition.

Photography group's work in frame

Cannock Photographic Society chairman John Cartlidge exhibits his work with fellow group members

PICTURES taken by members of Cannock Photographic Society are on display at Chasewater Innovation Centre. The photographic club has launched its 55th annual exhibition, which will run until November 25.

Admission is free and around 200 prints will be on display, selected and judged by national and international exhibitor David Gibbins. Cannock Photographic Society was founded in 1953 and new members are always welcome. They have visiting lecturers, hold monthly competitions and organise social events or weekend trips throughout the year. Club meetings are held on a Thursday night from September to May at Mill Street Methodist Church Hall, Cannock. Pritchard base pub plan

NATIONAL pub chain JD Wetherspoon is in talks over buying the Hednesford headquarters of the struggling Pritchard Group.

The firm is in negotiations to take over Anglesey Lodge and turn it into a pub. The building is thought to be among a raft of property which is being sold off by administrators to pay the Pritchard Group's £100million debts.

Part of the group has gone into administration with a further 16 companies continuing to trade, including its main arm and property side.

Anglesey Lodge was built in 1831 and was a hotel for many years before it was bought by the Pritchard Group.

Town council chairman Councillor Alan Pearson said: "I believe this would be an additional boost in bringing more trade into the town as pubs of this kind are very popular.

"The aim is for Hednesford to be a thriving town which brings in visitors and new businesses."

Officials from the pub group have so far refused to comment on any plans, but the move was welcomed by developer Fred Pritchard. He confirmed talks with pub bosses were ongoing and said if agreed, the sale to Wetherspoon's would "bring a further boost to Hednesford regeneration".

"This is a very exciting time. Hednesford is certainly not standing still and very much in the ascendancy."

By George! Be a hero to win clothing gift card

SUPERSTORE Asda is calling on the people of Cannock to nominate three local heroes worthy of a special Christmas makeover, courtesy of the store's George department.

Heroes can be nominated by family, friends or colleagues and could be someone who constantly makes life better for others, someone who goes that extra mile for a particular cause or person, or one renowned for their charity work.

The three chosen heroes will each be handed a £100 gift card to spend on a new Christmas wardrobe from George.

Nominations are being accepted up to Friday November 30 and can be sent via email to prasda@havasww.com with Asda Cannock Hero in the subject heading, or in writing to: Asda Cannock Hero, Havas, 3rd floor, 52 Princess Street, Manchester, M1 6JX.

Terrys all golden

Golden couple Jen and Warren Terry, from Heath Hayes with a portrait taken on their wedding day

THE FUTURE Mrs Jen Terry only popped into a Cannock pub to use the toilet – but ended up leaving with her future husband. Now they are marking 50 years of wedded bliss.

Aged 15 at the time, she was escorted into the pub by her older friends. Warren Terry, five years her senior, was on leave from the Army and insisted on walking her home.

Six months later the couple were an item and they tied the knot at St Luke's Church in Cannock on Mr Terry's 24th birthday, November 3, 1962.

Factory inspector Mrs Terry, now 69, and her bricklayer husband went on to have two children, Louise and Jason. They have two grandchildren, Georgia and Cameron.

Between 1973 and 1990 their lives took a different path as they became licensees, first at The Wheatsheaf and then at The Jolly Collier in Cannock.

Mr and Mrs Terry have lived at their home in Heath Hayes for the last seven years. The pair celebrated their golden wedding, and Mr Terry's 74th, with a party for family and friends at a Blackpool hotel.

Union fears over plans for estate

UNIONS have warned that visitors to Shugborough Hall will be served up a poorer experience if plans to recruit volunteers to staff the historic attraction go ahead.

Unison bosses are in talks with county council chiefs about proposals to halve the estate's frontline staff and have told of their fears for the future.

Staffordshire branch secretary Steve Elsey said: "We have major concerns over the quality of service and depth of knowledge that will continue to be provided."

by Mark Mudie

The shake-up will also see the estate close on a Tuesday and the season will be shortened by nine days.

The number of staff in the visitor service sector will be slashed from 66 to 32.

The cost-cutting measures are expected to save £148,000.

The estate costs £2,000 a day to open and bosses are looking to reduce the current running costs.

Mr Elsey said: "We concede the county council does have some tough decisions to make.

"However there are a lot of very experienced staff with a lot of knowledge who have worked at Shugborough for a long time.

"We have grave concerns over whether they would wish to volunteer to do a job they have been paid for for many years."

Newlife festive concert

THE third annual Newlife Christmas Concert will take place in Cannock on December 13. This year's event at the Civic Ballroom in Beecroft Road will feature the 30-strong Chadsmoor Choral Society and their orchestra The first part of the evening will feature songs from the musicals, with a Christmas theme after the interval. Tickets are £7.50 with a £2 concession for children, students and OAPs. They are available by contacting Chris on 01543 462 777 ext 300. Last year's event realised £1,026.

Festival dance haul

Dancers from the Sundance School of Dance, in Rugeley, with their recent haul of awards

DANCERS from Rugeley pitted their skills against competitors from across the country at a four-day festival.

Members of the Sundance School of Dance travelled to Skegness to compete in categories including freestyle solos, rock 'n' roll, slow dance and street.

Group leaders said they were "very proud" of the way dancers had represented the school achieving many first, second and third places. Two boys and 13 girls, aged eight to 20, from the school attended the festival.

The dancers are rehearsing for a show at the Rose Theatre, in Rugeley, called Destination Dance on November 25 and will perform at the town'sChristmas fair on November 30.

Contractors using town car parking spots, claim

SHOPPERS in Hednesford are having to drive around looking for a parking place because contractors on a new shopping centre are snapping up spaces, it has been claimed.

Residents have complained of difficulties in getting on the main car parks. Council bosses say building workers have been filling up many of the spaces but this will ease with the opening of the Tesco and smaller shops later this month.

Resident Ann Round has raised the issue in a written letter to Hednesford Community Forum – which takes place next Monday at the Museum of Cannock Chase – after failing to find a convenient parking space when visiting the town for a hair appointment.

She warned: "People will not go to shop in Hednesford if they can't park.

by Marion Brennan

Smaller

"I couldn't get onto the main car park because of all the people parking and using the trains.

"The car park behind B&M has been made drastically smaller. The council should be encouraging people to shop in Hednesford not putting them off."

Part of the car park behind B&M, a former KwikSave, has gone to the new Aldi supermarket, which should open next year.

Forum chairman, Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson, asked shoppers to be patient.

He said contractors currently had a higher number of works' vehicles on the streets as the Tesco project nears completion and a number were using public car parks.

"We are doing all this to encourage people to come into Hednesford," he said.

"When it is all finished, people will have hundreds of free parking spaces at Tesco when the store opens on November 26."

Street lights to go out at night across the county

STREET lights will go out in towns and villages across Staffordshire under new plans to restore natural night-time conditions.

Staffordshire County Council has denied the move is to save money. The authority says it will claw back a modest £7-a-year from each light switched off.

Highways bosses say they wanted to "encourage a return to a more natural night-time environment".

Town and parish councils across the county have been invited to register interest in switching off their street lights between midnight and 5.30am.

No restrictions have been set on the scheme, meaning community leaders could opt to introduce a blanket policy or just select certain streets.

Penkridge parish council was the first to debate the move at a meeting last week. Chairman Councillor John McPheat said most members were against a total black-out.

Financial

"Members seem keen on having lights reduced to 50 per cent," he said.

County Council spokesman Paula Wright said: "Letters have gone out to all parish and town councils asking if they would be interested in a 'part-night' initiative.

"This is essentially between midnight and 5.30pm," she added.

Cabinet member for highways Councillor Mike Maryon added: "The financial saving is very small due to the switch off time occurring during the period when energy costs are at their cheapest."

Oars well in fundraiser

Luke Garbett and other Prince's Trust members, with rowers Morgan Banbery and Brad Colley in the sponsored event at Nuffield centre

A TEAM of youngsters completed a row across the English Channel – without even leaving Cannock.

Around 12 members of the Prince's Trust team rowed 21 miles, the distance between Dover and Calais, in a sponsored relay at the Nuffield Health and Wellbeing Centre in East Cannock Road, Hednesford. Members gave generously to the cause.

Beth Alvey, team leader of the Cannock 281 Prince's Trust Group, said they hoped to raise a total of £400 through fundraising efforts to take service users out on day trips.

Blind group help appeal

A VOLUNTEER is needed to help organise activities for the Heath Hayes Blind Social Group. The group meets on the third Wednesday of the month at the library in Hednesford Road between midday and 2.30pm. Call 01785 254572.

Talk on life and loves of Chanel

CHASE TERRACE LADIES CLUB

LINDA Mountford gave a talk at the last meeting about the life and loves of Coco Chanel.

Born Gabrielle Bonheur Chanel in 1883 in the south of France, she died in 1971 aged 88.

One of six children, her mother died at 31 leaving them in the care of a father who promptly put the three girls in to a convent and never saw them again.

At 18 she left the convent with her siblings, gained employment as a seamstress, then sang in cabaret where she gained her nickname. Her first love was Etienne Balsan, a young, rich soldier. Their love of riding made them a match and she became his mistress and lived in his chateau.

The love of her life as Arthur Edward "Boy" Capel, who financed her first shops. At the same time Jean Raudier had invented jersey material. She bought all his stock and made cardigans with pockets out of it.

Arthur was killed at 37 in 1919 and Coco was devastated. While living with him she began designing hats.

During the 1920s she perfected her look. The little black dress, costume jewellery, the Chanel bag and her signature No 5 perfume.

At the beginning of WWII she closed her shops, moving to Switzerland in 1945 and back to Paris in 1954.

International event hears work of Oxfam

Region president Judith Healey, Team President Ronnie Reynolds and Jenna Wills

TEAM president Ronnie Reynolds introduced Jenna Wills from Oxfam as the guest speaker at SI Cannock & District's International Evening – an annual event celebrating the work of Soroptimists throughout the world.

Members were pleased that Region President, Judith Healey, was able to join them. She lit the candle to represent Soroptimist members internationally.

Jenna explained how Oxfam was set up 70 years ago by a small group who met in an Oxford library; they wanted to do something to help people in Greece who were affected by famine. Jenna talked about the need for clean water and asked members to consider doing something to celebrate International Women's Day on March 8 2013.

Secretary Janis Lomas gave the vote of thanks and presented Jenna with a donation from the club for the charity's continuing work.

An insight into 'Poisoner'

AT THE October meeting members listened to an informative talk by Anthony Hunt on notorious Rugeley poisoner Dr William Palmer.

Mr Hunt gave an insight into Palmer's upbringing and his relationship with his doting mother, which may have had a bearing on his later misdeeds. There was no lunch club as members enjoyed a Trent River cruise which included lunch.

The South Staffs craft day on October 20 at Aldridge was a great success. Hednesford's sale table raised more than £120 for its charity fund. Diary dates include: November 21 – coffee morning and craft sale at Avis Wilding's home, 10am; November 28 – visit to Walsall Leather Museum and Boundary Mill for lunch and shopping; December 12 – the Christmas lunch at The Orbital.

Lion Rex roars to 20 years of service

Rex Stevenson (left) receives his award from District Governor Rob Brown for 20 years service to Rugeley Lions

A STALWART member of Rugeley Lions Club has been presented with a long service medal.

Rex Stevenson joined the Lions in the year of its foundation 20 years ago and has held every senior office, including three stints as president. He was presented with his long service medal by District Governor Rob Brown. Paying tribute, a Lions club member said: "Rex is renowned for his wicked sense of humour and amusing speeches. A true character, Rex's generosity of time, patience and service have made him an exemplary servant of the club."

Knife hidden behind bins

A PENKRIDGE man who hid a knife behind some rubbish bins has been ordered to pay out more than £200.

Aron Hadjiouannou was called to the former home of Shana Nicholls in Cannock Road, Featherstone after she told him she was going to be attacked by an armed gang.

Cannock magistrates heard Nicholls had told Hadjiouannou she had been visited by a man who had threatened to return with "a gang and guns". Hadjiouannou took the knife from the kitchen drawer and hid it behind bins outside in case he needed it.

The gang did not show up but police had been called and found the knife and Hadjiouannou, aged 22, admitted he had put it there on August 31.

Hadjiouannou, of Hatherton Road, pleaded guilty to possessing an offensive weapon in a public place. He was fined £110 and ordered to pay £85 costs and a £15 victim surcharge.

Mr Giles Rowden, prosecuting, said there had been a "disturbance" and that Nicholls, 21, had been heard to shout racist abuse down a phone. She had also damaged a windscreen wiper.

She admitted one count of criminal damage and another of using threatening or abusive words. She was fined £70 for the criminal damage and £55 for the abusive words along with £85 costs and a £15 victim surcharge. She was also ordered to pay £10 compensation to the owner of the vehicle.

Mr Alan Bentley, representing Hadjiouannou, said his client had hidden the weapon but had not used it.

Christmas gifts on offer at wildlife HQ

VISITORS to Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's HQ can pick up some Christmas gifts at a festive fair this weekend.

The conservation charity's annual event takes place on Saturday and Sunday (November 17 and 18) at the Wolseley Centre. Visitors can brose more than 30 stalls offering a range of handmade crafts including woven baskets, jewellery and painted figures. Other gift ideas include textiles, stained glass and wood items. Mince pies, mulled wine, jams, cakes and refreshments will all be on offer.

The Owl Experience, Stafford is paying a visit on the Sunday. Admission is £1, but free for Friends of Wolseley. For more, call the wildlife trust on 01889 880100.

Coffee time at store

Costa staff Morgan Peach, left, Samantha Elliott, Denise Buckley and Joe Apperley celebrate its opening

A NEW Costa Coffee has opened in Cannock, bringing 10 jobs to the town. The chain has unveiled its latest branch in Cannock Shopping Centre in the former Birthdays store.

Costa bosses had been on the lookout for a suitable location for their new branch and said Cannock ticked all the boxes.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson said attracting Costa was a coup for the town.

He said: "They have turned the store around really quickly. It's another vote of confidence in Cannock town centre."

Hope on start of cemetery work

WORK will begin next month on a new cemetery that will provide Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley with enough burial space for two generations.

Landscaping for the 8,000-plot Strawberry Lane cemetery should be completed by Christmas. Construction will start early in the new year ready for opening in the spring.

Planning permission for the 12-acre development was granted in September. Penkridge developer Ken Lees donated land for the £300,000 scheme to South Staffordshire Council.

by Mark Mudie

Pathway

Council leader Councillor Brian Edwards said: "We're hoping to get on site sometime next month to start some of the landscaping works.

"If the weather's kind we'll hopefully have that done before Christmas and ready for the spring."

A crest-shaped road will enclose a cemetery for cremated remains, while a tree-lined pathway will mark the western edge of the site.

Buried remains will be on the eastern side of the development and a 19-space car park will be installed to the south.

Councillors overwhelmingly backed the proposals at a meeting of the regulatory committee, with Essington councillor David Cliffe saying it was "desperately needed".

Council officers had identified a crisis of burial space in coming years if no new sites were developed.

Mr Lees owns county development firm KGL Estates. His company has built 50 cottages at 1,200-acre Teddesley Park in Penkridge as well as completing a number of barn conversions at the site.

Chairman gets in swing

CANNOCK Chase Council's chairman is getting into swing of things as he looks forward to hosting his charity ball. Tickets are selling fast for the Night With Michael Buble, which will raise money for Councillor Bob Todd's chosen causes, Cancer Research UK and Mencap. The night, on Friday, November 30, is a tribute to the artiste and will also feature a disco and fundraising raffles with a host of top prizes up for grabs. It takes place at the council's Civic Centre ballroom in Beecroft Road from 7.30pm to midnight. Tickets are £29, available on 01543 464435.

Owners set out stall for market celebration

The MP hands over a gift to hardware stallholder Pete Watton as the market owners celebrate 20 years

OWNERS of Penkridge Market held a special event for customers and traders to mark 20 years since taking over the site.

Jeremy Lefroy MP and parish council chairman John McPheat, handed out specially made paperweights as a keepsake to may loyal stallholders.

Long-serving trader Paul Matthews who retired on the day, was presented with an award by Mr Lefroy and market manager Matt Williams. Mr Matthews said: "It has been a privilege to be part of Penkridge Markets and to see it grow into an important shopping centre for the area"

Radio Station, Signal 107 broadcasted from the site on the day, and presenters Dicky Dodd and Tom Campbell competed in an 'Apprentice' style challenge to see who was the best market trader. Dicky Dodd was a clear winner, generating £165 profit from his stall, which was donated to Midlands Air Ambulance.

Other traders collected donations and a grand total of £550 was presented to the charity's representative Jo Bailey.

Manager Matt Williams looks on as long-serving Paul Matthews is handed a gift on retiring from the market

Fashion trader Julian Bolton was recognised for his loyal service with a paperweight presented by the MP

Trader Shaun Glaze, from the Penkridge market watch stall, was one of the stallholders presented with a gift

Till back in boxing ring – at age of 49

Scott Murray, owner of Cannock's Premier Suite, with comeback boxer Peter Till

A BOXER is making a professional comeback in a Cannock bout – at the age of 49.

Walsall's Peter Till, who sparred with the legendary Barry McGuigan, hopes his return to the ring will raise money in memory of his father.

Till retired as a pro in 1996 – but will step back on the canvas at the The Premier Suite in High Green on November 23. As well as being paid on the night, he is also being sponsored, with money raised going to Prostate Cancer UK in memory of his father George. Known as 'Fono' to his friends, he died from the disease aged 58.

Till won 30 of his 52 pro fights and is a former Midlands area lightweight champion. He became friends and sparring partner to Barry McGuigan following a fight against Neil Haddock in Port Talbot, Wales, which he won on points.

After approaching McGuigan for a chat and advice on his boxing career the former world featherweight champ invited him to his home near Luton for sparring sessions.

Till said: "Barry McGuigan was my idol. I approached him and he offered me advice and asked if I wanted to spar with him.

"He was a lovely man outside the ring but when we got into the ring his whole persona changed. He was like a different man.

"He put me down three times. He told me after that the ring was his office and that's where he did his business. As he got out again he was back to his charming self."

Thrill

The two have remained friends ever since and regularly exchange texts over their beloved Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. Till's biggest thrill was fighting at the club's White Hart Lane ground where he fought Michael Ayers losing in Round Five.

Till has kept himself fit following his retirement but has been stepping up his training at Pleck and Walsall Wood Amateur Boxing Clubs.

There will be six fights on the night. Tickets start from £15 from the Premier Suite on 01543 572092 or from Peter Till on 07432 142343.

Light work is made of festive switch-on thanks to funding

THE shops of Hednesford will be lit up this Christmas thanks to money secured by the town's Traders' Association.

The 35 sets of 25-metre long lights were bought through money obtained by Cannock Chase Council as part of Section 106 of planning agreements.

The money has been gathered by the council from the developers of the regeneration work at Victoria work.

The section 106 planning obligation dictates that businesses involved in the development must donate some money back into the local community that will then be available to local clubs, groups and businesses.

Ceremony

This first successful bid from the traders association meant that £1,500 could be invested into this year's lights which will be switched on on November 30 by town council chairman Alan Pearson and the winner of this year's Christmas poster competition.

Traders' Association chairman Simon Orme said: "We are over the moon to secure the funding because it means, come the time, we can light the town up properly."

Although this is only the first of many bids, it is hoped by town centre traders that the substantial money, given by the partnership building the £50m development, will go towards the regeneration of the high street.

Councillor Diane Todd, Cannock Chase Council town centre regeneration leader, said: "This is the first project to be approved using Section 106 money from the regeneration of Hednesford town centre and I'm sure it will make Christmas even more sparkling.

"There is £30,000 available for works and activities to benefit the town centre and we'll be working closely with Hednesford Traders' Association on using this funding effectively."

Santa Claus will be coming to town as part of popular annual Christmas craft market and light ceremony. Shops will take part in the best window display and best lights competition and will be open later.

Children will be kept entertained by fun fair rides and a visit from Father Christmas. Stalls and rides will open at 3pm followed by entertainment from 4.30pm.

Organisers hailing the success of story walk

THE Friends of Hednesford Park have expressed their thanks to residents who supported this year's Lantern Story Walk.

Parents and children attended the event at Hednesford Park in fancy dress despite the bad weather, and listened to a spooky story written by author Cindy Faulkner and West Hill Primary School's Jackanory Club.

Friends group chairman Lynn Evans said: "The walk was a success despite the weather and light being against us. I want to say a huge thank you to all who supported the event and attended."

She is now requesting feedback on the walk so it can be improved for next year and has already received numerous favourable reviews.

Sale will benefit residents' group

A RESIDENTS' group is holding a table top sale next weekend. It takes place at the Birds pub, Bradbury Lane, from 11am to 3pm on Saturday, November 24. Tables are £3.

Proceeds will go to the Cornish Residents' Association to take residents and their children on outings.

Pupils given insight into life as politician

by Tom Mason

Aidan Burley MP speaking with pupils from Kingsmead Technology College in a committee room in Parliament

STUDENTS from four Chase schools visited to parliament to meet their MP in an attempt to inspire the next generation of public figures.

Pupils where treated to a two-hour tour of the Houses of Parliament including admission to both the Lords and Commons chambers.

Afterwards Chase MP Aidan Burley was grilled by the students for an hour on his role as their elected representative. Pupils from Kingsmead Technology College in Hednesford were among those taking part.

Mr Burley invited all secondary schools in his constituency to come along and has visited and given talks at at least half of the area's 38 schools.

He said: "I believe as MPs it is vital we do all we can to inspire the next generation to want to become the politicians of the future, whether as local councillors making a real difference to their communities or as MPs making decisions that affect our country."

He added: "With voter turnout so low among young people, it is important that we do everything we can to engage more youngsters in the political process."

Merson to be a guest speaker at club night

A FAMOUS footballer will appear at a charity night in Hednesford next week.

Former Walsall boss Paul Merson will be joined on the evening by comedian Lea Roberts at Hednesford Town's Keys Park ground on Wednesday (November 21) from 7.30pm.

Ex-Aston Villa and England ace Merson also played for Arsenal and Portsmouth before becoming a TV pundit for Sky Sports.

Club secretary Terry MacMahon said: "Paul Merson is a very well known personality throughout the Midlands and, alongside the presence of Lea Roberts, the evening promises to be thoroughly enjoyable."

Tickets for the sportsman's dinner care £30 plus a four-course meal, with a raffle, auction and Irish bingo being held in aid of the Midlands Air Ambulance.

To book, call the club on 01543 422870.

Hayley hopes to cut it after taking risk

Hairdresser Hayley Boot, aged 26, who has quit her job to take over the Barber Shop in Parkhill Road, Burntwood

A 26-YEAR-OLD mother from Burntwood has risked it all to launch her own hairdressing business in her home town.

Hayley Boot gave up her job as manager of Barber's Lounge in Lichfield to take over The Barbershop, in Parkhill Road. She poured all of her savings into revamping the premises before opening for business last month.

Hayley said: "I've used the money I saved at my old place so now I'm really just relying on this shop taking off. Right now I'm not earning a wage, I'm just covering the rent."

Hayley repainted the shop and installed new seating at a cost of almost £800, which she had saved from her old job. She had trained at Cannock College, after leaving Blake High School, in Hednesford, She juggled the course with a full-time job at Claire's Barbershop, in Chasetown.

Dog attack owner fined

A GERMAN Shepherd dog allowed to run free in a public place bit a man on the arm as he tried to protect his own dog from being attacked.

Barinder Bains was unable to stop his German Shepherd, named Marley, from bounding towards King Charles Spaniel Charlie and his owners in Salisbury Drive, Cannock, on May 26.

The spaniel's owners, a Mr and Mrs Massey, tried to protect their pet but the bigger dog was able to seize it by the back of the neck.

Cannock magistrates court heard that Mr Massey, who suffers from a heart condition, had scooped up Charlie in his arms.

Jumped

It was then that Marley jumped up and bit the man on the arm.

Bains, aged 39, of Rochester Way, Cannock, pleaded guilty to owning a dog dangerously out of control in a public place.

He was fined £70 and ordered to pay £100 compensation, £85 costs and a £15 victim surcharge.

Bains, who was not represented in court, said he had since sold Marley to a new owner.

Magistrates ordered Bains to share information on Marley's new owner so an order could be placed ensuring that the dog was kept under control in the future.

Grin and bare it at emotional comedy

Calendar Girls, Wolverhampton Grand

TIM Firth's Calendar Girls, as first made famous on the big screen in 2003, is a real rollercoaster of a play. Now ten years old, it is the real life tale of a Women's Institute who made a controversial nude calendar that landed them in the international media's attention.

Set in rural Yorkshire the play revolves around Annie, played by Sue Holderness, a woman who loses her husband, John, to leukemia. Her WI club is not all jam and Jerusalem, more like vodka and store bought sticky buns.

The all-star cast contains many well known names from TV and the stage. The two leading ladies are Sue Holderness, Marlene in Only Fools and Horses, and Lesley Joseph from Birds of a Feather. These two provide wonderful performances that are emotive and genuinely hilarious.

The other actors are also superb and leave the audience with some really memorable moments. particularly Helen Fraser (as Jessie), the oldest character but the one with the most spirit and some of the funniest lines. The hottie of the group Celia, played by Kathryn Rooney, is a bombshell that may leave the more sensitive blushing.

The film's famous scenes translated well on stage. This is a play with laughter that really tugs at a person's heart strings.

Tom Mason

Dolly led the way

Hello Dolly, Wolverhampton Grand

DOLLY was in good form for Bilston Operatic's latest production at the Grand Theatre.

Combining their talent for quality singing with some strong individual roles produced an entertaining evening. Impressive costumes and sets gave a colourful warm feel to the show.

However, maybe due to first night nerves, some of the big showstopping numbers lacked a bit of sparkle but I'm sure as the week went this will have remedied itself.

Carrying the show's title role is Maggie Page who gives an exceptional performance portraying the humorous and eccentric meddlesome matchmaker Dolly Gallagher Levi.

Greg Yates was a formidable Horace Vandergelder portraying his character perfectly. The comical roles of Cornelius Hackl and Barnaby Tucker were excellently played by Simon McGee and Stephen Yeomans.

Strong individual performances were also given by Sue Towler, Emily Bennett, Sarah Houghton, Emily Halford and Dan Smith.

Hard work and enthusiasm from this company is the key to it's ongoing success.

Les Jowett

A variety of styles from 'folkchestra'

Bellowhead, Wulfrun Hall, Wolverhampton

THE stage could barely contain the 11-piece folkchestra that is Bellowhead.

The set opened with the single tone of the marimba but quickly built up to a wall of sound that exploded into Black Beetle Pies from their latest album Broadside. They managed to get a thrash metal-style ending in.

There was a change of pace then for 10,000 Miles Away, again from the new album, and which had more of a feeling of a sea shanty. Theatricals came out as Jon Boden's distinctive voice and his fellow musicians created a sinister spy theme with The Old Dun Cow. By now the band were in full flow, saxophone, fiddles, accordions, trombones and guitars flying everywhere.

The packed out hall really came to life with one of Bellowhead's best known anthems Whisky Is The Life of Man. Then towards the end of the set they again pulled out one of their favourites, New York Girls. Danny Farragher

Wishing she was an audible rocker

Sandi Thom Robin2, Bilston

UNFORTUNATELY Scots blues singer Sandi Thom's performance was marred by some dodgy sound engineering at the Robin2 in Bilston. Even so, it seems she is more a studio artist than a live performer.

Thom is on the road promoting her latest album Flesh and Blood. Although she does has a powerful voice she struggled to overcome the sound of her band on Can't Do It All By Myself, in which she showed her prowess on the harmonica. The struggle to be heard continued as she moved into a funkier number Stormy Weather. As expected, fans were treated to her biggest hit I Wish I Was A Punk Rocker.

Thom moved into a harder rock number in the Human Juke Box before sliding into a blues riff again.

Sound problems worsened with I Owe You Zero with an overpowering bass just blowing her voice out of the water.

All in all, not the best showing for Thom's talents.

NEWS

Greetings, card shop

Cannock shopping centre manager Natal Chapman, shop owner Jon Banner and councillor Diane Todd

THE first shop to take advantage of a £10,000 business rate holiday has opened in Cannock.

Card Stop in Market Hall Street already has branches at the Merry Hill Shopping Centre in Dudley, as well as Kidderminster, Sedgley and Stourbridge.

Owner Jon Banner said it was entirely down to the discount scheme that the business had been able to expand into Cannock. He said: "We've employed two local people to work in our Cannock shop and will be taking on more people soon.

"It's very refreshing to see a council doing something so proactive."

Cannock Chase Council's town centre business rates discount scheme encourages firms to take on empty units in Cannock, Rugeley, and Hednesford. The cash comes from the Mary Portas High Street Innovation fund.

Businesses interested in the scheme should go to www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/ratesdiscount

Latest Best of Friends show

RUGELEY entertainment group the Best of Friends perform their latest offering next week.

Around The World For Christmas takes place at St Joseph's Community Centre on November 23 and 24 from 7.30pm. It contains information about the origins of Christmas traditions, songs and carols, coupled with and poetry and hilarious sketches.

Admission prices are £6 adults, £3 for children and £5 concessions, to include refreshments.

The "Best of Friends" are a group of senior citizens who enjoy singing. They are a non-profit making organisation who, after covering expenses, make donations to charities.

This year's nominated charity is "The Motor Neurone Association" as this year the group have lost a member to the disease.

For this production the group is being joined by three of their members' grandchildren, Luke Pilsbury, Ryan Swan and Emily-Rose Weals.

Tributes at Tack

U2 and The Sterephonics get the tribute treatment this weekend. The Tackeroo, in Bracken Close, Brindley Heath plays host to the sounds of Bono and co tomorrow (Friday) at a cost of £6 with a tribute to the Welsh rockers on Saturday. Admission is £5.

Get poppin' and lockin' for hit hip hop show at Grand

SOME Like It Hip Hop, the acclaimed dance musical, is coming to Wolverhampton Grand Theatre next week as part of its first UK tour since wowing dance fans in London.

ZooNation's follow up to their smash hit Into The Hoods, Some Like It Hip Hop blends elements borrowed from Hollywood and Shakespeare with pure dance energy for a story about cross-dressing women taking on a man's world.

Directed by Kate Prince and featuring original music from Josh Cohen and DJ Walde, the show combines comedy, physical theatre and liquid moves from some of the best young hip hop dancers on the UK scene.

Disguise

It tells the story of two bright girls who refuse to be kept down by a society that bans books and treats women as second class citizens, so they disguise themselves as men. Comic confusion results when romance is involved.

Some Like It Hip Hop forges elements from classic Billy Wilder movie Some Like It Hot and Shakespeare's Twelfth Night into a fresh fleet-footed fantasy.

It's at the Grand on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Legends of soul make date at PoW

SOUL legends The Drifters bring their latest tour – and line-up to Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre next week.

There have been more than 65 vocalists in the group's 59-year history and the current members will perform their Masquerade tour at the Church Street venue next Friday, November 23 from 7.30pm.

They will belt out hits such as You're More Than A Number, Kissin' In The Back Row, Under The Boardwalk, Saturday Night At The Movies and Come On Over To My Place.

Tickets are £24 or £25 and available from the box office on 01543 578762.

Cinders will go to the ball – Elisha Willis plays the title role in Birmingham Royal Ballet's popular festive production of Cinderella at Birmingham Hippodrome. She will be sharing the role with six other ballerinas during the run Picture by Bill Cooper

Invitation to the ball for a traditional ballet treat

BIRMINGHAM Royal Ballet's sumptuous production of Cinderella returns to the company's home theatre, Birmingham Hippodrome, to usher in the festive season from November 21 to December 9.

The production by the company's director David Bintley got its world premiere in the city in 2010 and was televised on Christmas Day by the BBC.

The fairy tale is given the full glittering treatment and is perhaps only surpassed by family favourite The Nutcracker as the most popular Christmas ballet.

The skill of the dancers and glamorous costumes will be matched by Prokofiev's music, performed by the Royal Ballet Sinfonia.

REVIEW

Little to work with for chorus

The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe, Chadsmoor Choral Society, Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock

CS Lewis' classic about four sibling refugees from The London Blitz, who are sent to live in a large country house has lent itself to film and more than one stage version.

Here, the Pevensie family were well portrayed by all four young actors but Charlotte Travis deserves special mention for her part as youngest sibling, Lucy.

Steve Thornhill and Diane Whyte worked well as Mr and Mrs Beaver and Paul Lycett showed a different facet of his acting skills in his portrayal of Mr Tumnus the fawn.

The multi-purpose set, much of which was made by the group, worked well and the transformations from spare room to Narnia were effective.

It was a pity the writer provided little for the chorus to work with since the company is a choral society. Bryan Till

Bad Rats pub gig

Paddy McGuinness

Take Me Out
ITV1, 6.45pm
Does Paddy McGuinness have the best job in telly? As if it's not enough that he gets the rewarding task of playing at being Cilla Black, the comic is constantly surrounded by (on the whole) a bunch of rather easy-on-the-eye girls. It seems a long time ago when walked in the shadow of comic sidekick and best friend Peter Kay. He's lined up four more loveless men for tonight's show: Matt, a trainer fanatic from Leicester; Pete, a builder from Chichester; Sam, a BMX champion from Colchester; and Luke, a student from Surrey.

Suranne Jones

The Secret of Crickley Hall
BBC1, 9pm

If there's one upside to the dark, cold November nights, it's that they provide the perfect conditions for snuggling up on the sofa and watching a spooky drama. Suranne Jones and Tom Ellis star as Eve and Gabe, a London-based couple who move to the north, hoping a change of scene will help them recover from the mysterious disappearance of their young son. Sadly, their new home of Crickley Hall proves anything but comforting, as things go bump in the night – and flashbacks to 1943 suggest the building could have a tragic history.

Pick of the Week

The past comes back to haunt grieving parents

Many parents will struggle to think of anything more terrifying than their child going missing, but The Secret of Crickley Hall somehow manages it.

Based on a novel by horror king James Herbert, the three-part drama follows a couple who lose their son, and then move into a haunted house.

But while it may sound like a nightmare, it's part of what attracted Suranne Jones to the drama.

She explains: "I think that's the backdrop of any good ghost story – a missing child or some sort of trauma that kind of helps the audience relate to the characters."

So, viewers should prepare to have their bones chilled by this tale of Eve (Jones) and Gabe (Tom Ellis), who live in London with their three children.

One day an exhausted Eve is in a playground with their son Cam, and briefly falls asleep – and when she wakes, the youngster is nowhere to be seen. Although the family cling to the hope that he will be found alive, almost a year passes with no news.

Gabe eventually accepts a new job in the north, believing his wife and two daughters, Loren and Cally, will benefit from a change of scene.

Unfortunately, it seems he may have made the wrong decision in moving to Crickley Hall, which turns out to have a sinister past.

Running parallel to Gabe and Eve's story are the events of 1943, when Crickley Hall was an orphanage, run by Augustus Cribben (Douglas Henshall) and his sister Magda (Sarah Smart).

New tutor Nancy (Olivia Cooke) suspects the children are being mistreated, but no one seems to believe her.

And when back in 2012, Cally and Loren experience visions of a man with a cane, it seems the time periods may not be as remote as we thought.

For Suranne Jones, it's the two timelines that make the drama so unique. "When I read the script, I'd never done anything in the ghost genre, and the narrative of a woman losing her child was the strong bit for me, as well as the two time frames.

"You're following a woman's desperation, but then you'll also see what she doesn't see."

And unlike in most horror films, where you're screaming at the characters to just get out of the haunted house, Eve has a reason for sticking around, even after the family dog runs off in terror.

She becomes convinced that one of the ghostly presences in Crickley Hall is her son Cam, who seems to be telling her that the children hold the key to his disappearance and can tell her where he is…

If it sounds creepy on the page, it should be even more unsettling on screen, and Jones admits she can't wait to see the finished product.

"The CGI guys will get on top of it, there'll be a brilliant composer, the editing will be great… I mean we need to do our job as well, but those are the things that are going to make it jumpy along the way."

Don't say you haven't been warned.

Iain de Caestecker, Maisie Williams, Bill Milner and Pixie Davies also star.

Suranne Jones stars in The Secret of Crickley Hall, Sunday, BBC1, 9pm

Best of the Rest

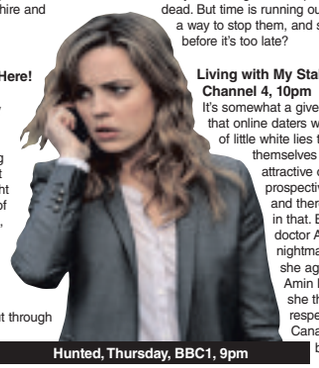
Monday
The All New Gadget Show
Channel 5, 8pm
Christmas has definitely come early for Jason Bradbury and Pollyanna Woodward. They are off to Israel, where they test two of the latest underwater cameras in the Red Sea. (Clearly their local swimming baths wasn't deemed exotic enough). If you're one of the few people in the world thinking: 'What's the best blender to make a decent leek smoothie, and what battery-powered torch is powerful enough to fry an egg on?', then you're in luck as Jason provides the answer to both questions. The main purpose of the trip is to visit Israel's annual Kinnernet networking event for technology enthusiasts. Jason tries out his powered kiteboard, and there's also a guide to powering a mobile phone using water.

Stephen Fry: Gadget Man
Channel 4, 8.30pm
A few years ago Stephen Fry presented a countdown of the 100 greatest gadgets for Channel 4. Now he's back with another strand bound to appeal to those of us whose rooms are usually lit up like Christmas trees with all the things on charge. He'll be sharing his passion for technology, trying out all manner of gizmos and prototypes, as well as attempting to create his own supergadget. Jonathan Ross joins him for the inaugural edition, and they examine how the daily commute can be made more bearable. The world's smallest electric car, an unusual bicycle and a 3D headset are scrutinised, and Stephen designs a fantasy vehicle that would avoid the horrors of traffic jams.

Tuesday
Last Tango in Halifax
BBC1, 9pm
Don't panic – despite the title, the plot won't involve any naughtiness in a West Yorkshire town. Instead, this six-part romantic comedy focuses on the rather touching tale of Celia Dawson and Alan Buttershaw, former lovers who haven't seen each other for 60 years. After chatting on Facebook, they decide to meet up again, and discover they were kept apart all those decades ago by a simple twist of fate. What's more, their old, passionate feelings for each other are immediately reignited. Anne Reid, Derek Jacobi, Sarah Lancashire and Nicola Walker head the cast.

Wednesday
I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here!
ITV1, 8.30pm
This time last year much of Blighty was hooked on the site of Jessica Jane Clement and Mark Wright wearing trousers full of water trying to complete their latest trial. Well, it was nothing if not original. The sight of Sinitta stood all night in a cave of creepy crawlies was also good fun, and who could forget eventual winner Dougie Poynter racing round what looked like a rat's maze trying to collect stars for the evening meal? By now we'll have seen all manner of Z-list celebs put through their paces, while Ant and Dec commentate on their progress.

Thursday
Hunted
BBC1, 9pm
It's fair to say that most of Melissa George's best roles have come on the small screen – she's been particularly fine in this gritty drama, which has buried memories of her role as Angel in Home and Away once and for all. This is the final episode, and it promises to be gripping stuff – Sam is exposed as a spy and trapped inside the house where she is slowly, and secretly, being poisoned to death. Her memory also begins to return, and it's then that she realises why the Hourglass conspirators want her dead. But time is running out – can she find a way to stop them, and save herself, before it's too late?



Hunted, Thursday, BBC1, 9pm

Living with My Stalker
Channel 4, 10pm
It's somewhat a given these days that online daters will tell a couple of little white lies to make themselves sound a more attractive option to prospective partners – and there's no real harm in that. But for trainee doctor Alison Hewitt, the nightmare began when she agreed to meet Al Amin Dhalla – who she thought was a respectable Canadian businessman. As it turned out, Dhalla's entire life story was based on lies – but Alison and her family didn't know the half of it. After the couple broke up, it became clear that the Dhalla wouldn't stop at anything to get her back, including poison pen letters, arson, building a torture chamber and eventually hiring a hit man.

Friday
Have I Got News for You
BBC1, 9pm
Now pay attention comedy fans. What we have here is a half hour collection of topical news stories lined up in the satirical crosshairs of agents Ian Hislop, Paul Merton and their guests – comedian Marcus Brigstocke and journalist Rachel Johnson. The quartet will be trying to guess what happened next, the missing headlines and assorted other teasers posed by this week's celebrity guest host – James Bond legend Roger Moore.

Attenborough: 60 Years in the Wild
BBC2, 9pm
The word 'legend' gets bandied around a lot in TV, but if there is one man who deserves the term, it's David Attenborough. Not only has he been on our screens for an impressive 60 years, his programmes have helped to advance our understanding of the world around us – and there are very few celebs who can say that. However, it seems David continues to amass his learning, as he looks back at some of the scientific breakthroughs that have been made during his decades on the air. And it's not just the theories and scientific concepts that have changed – there have also been extraordinary advances in filming.

Peaceful times at new canalside development

DAVID Wilson Mercia's The Laurels development in Fazeley, Tamworth ticked all the boxes for its latest resident because of the accessible location and peaceful surroundings.

Drayton Bassett-born Julianne Reynolds (40) has made the move back home to Tamworth after spending 20 years away from the Midlands running her own business.

With properties in London and Brighton, the digital marketing expert needed a quiet place to plan her next career move whilst still having easy access to the south east.

Julianne has moved into a two-bedroom Grazier style apartment at the development, which is located along the banks of the Fazeley canal.

She said: "I've found the perfect location at The Laurels. It's a great base for travel down south either by car or by train and is really quiet, giving me plenty of time to think about my future plans. Better still I can safely lock up when I have to go away for work.

Space

"I have plenty of space in my two-bedroom apartment and I also have lovely views over the canal. It's a very peaceful development, which is well maintained and it's also gated which makes it feel safe.

"I've really settled in here at The Laurels and it feels like home."

Alastair Parsons, senior sales manager at David Wilson Mercia said: "We are glad Julianne has been able to find her perfect apartment at The Laurels which is ideally located for her as she travels frequently.

"We have different schemes available to help make your first or fifth move as smooth as possible. Come and talk to our sales advisers today to see how we can help you."

The Laurels has two-bedroom apartments available at £135,000.

For more information call the sales centre on 01827 285834 open daily between 10am and 5pm.

Alternatively, call the sales hotline on 0844 811 3322 open seven days a week from 8am to 9pm or visit www.dwh.co.uk

Open day set to reveal stylish interior fittings

PROSPECTIVE buyers will be able to take a first-hand look at a quality development of two-bedroom homes in Rugeley at an open day on Saturday, November 24.

It is being held between 11am and 1pm at The Fair, Sheepfair, where there are six plots remaining.

The development comprises of nine two-bedroom properties, all fitted to an extremely high standard with stylish kitchens and bathrooms to include floor to ceiling tiling as well as brushed chrome spotlights, sockets and light switches.

There are also fully fitted alarm systems and extensive slabbing to the rear.

All potential purchasers will have a choice of nine different kitchen types as well as decoration and tile choices, subject to build stage, and all the houses have two allocated parking spaces which are located in a secure gated complex.

Rugeley, a historic market town in Staffordshire, lies on the northern edge of Cannock Chase and has indoor and outdoor markets and a growing shopping centre.

Connections

With excellent communication links and easy access to the motorway network, the town also boasts two local railway stations with daily connections to both Birmingham and London.

Education is also well catered for with an excellent selection of primary, junior and secondary schools in both the private and public sectors.

Call C Residential on 01889 583377 for details.

Only five plots remain at the popular Sheepfair development called 'The Fair' where buyers are offered a choice of nine different kitchen types as well as decoration and tile options. All houses also have designated parking places

Mixed results from housing market survey

BUYER demand in the West Midlands rose at its fastest rate since the summer of 2009 during October, with purchasers across the region looking to test the pre-Christmas market, says the latest RICS housing market survey out this month.

Interest from would-be buyers has struggled in the region for much of the year. However, during October chartered surveyors in the West Midlands reported a considerable boost in new buyer enquiries with a net balance of 35 per cent more respondents reporting rises (from 19 per cent).

It appears that the growing optimism shown in recent months may slowly be translating into an upturn in activity.

Rises

Alongside this, the amount of homes coming onto the region's market also saw an improvement, as supply rose at its highest rate since August 2010.

Last month, 24 per cent more respondents reported rises rather than falls in vendors placing their properties on the market (from minus five percent).

Moving on to prices, despite demand seeing an upturn in fortunes, prices across the West Midlands continued to dip with a net balance of 29 per cent more surveyors reporting drops. This has now been in negative territory since May 2010.

Balance

Regionally, all areas of the UK saw improvements in levels of demand with the exception of Northern Ireland and Scotland. Significantly, the North East and the West Midlands saw the most notable rises, with surveyors in those regions reporting positive net balance readings of 56 and 35 per cent respectively.

Looking ahead, a flat net balance of chartered surveyors in the region reported on sales expectations over the coming three months.

Ian Perry, RICS housing spokesperson, commented: "The number of potential buyers going out and viewing property saw a welcome boost last month. It seems that with Christmas around the corner, those who are in a position to buy decided to get out there and see what is available. That being said, overall activity is still very low in most parts of the country and what the market desperately needs is for this to translate into actual sales.

"Initiatives like the NewBuy scheme are all well and good but they need time to bed in and take effect, and access to affordable mortgage finance is still very difficult for many first time buyers.

"With the autumn statement around the corner, we would like to see the government continue to focus on delivering new homes and encouraging the banks to lend at affordable levels."

Daisy times it right after family's hassle-free move

BRACKEN Gardens' latest residents have praised housebuilder Barratt Homes for making their move to the development on Armitage Road in Rugeley quick, smooth and just in time, as their second child was born three weeks after moving in.

Mike Kernick, aged 43 and wife Victoria, 39, were looking for a home big enough for their growing family and which was ideally located half way between Wolverhampton and Stoke-on-Trent where their parents live.

Mike, a senior IT manager, said: "We were planning on reserving a property at another development but were let down. So when we found out about Bracken Gardens we decided to visit and my wife Victoria loved it straight away."

The Kernicks purchased a four-bedroom Armitage style house with the help of Barratt's Movemaker scheme. Their new home is big enough for the couple, their eight-and-a-half-year-old son Finley and new born daughter Daisy.

"We wanted to move to our new home before Daisy was born and Barratt Homes did everything they could to make our move as easy and quick as possible, which was great as Victoria was heavily pregnant at the time.

Fantastic

"With Movemaker it only took four weeks to sell our previous property and Barratt was fantastic. We received all the help we needed and the move was as smooth as it could have been."

Victoria, who works at a nursery, said: "Daisy was born just three weeks after we moved in and our four-bedroom home is perfect for our new family.

Lisa Preston, sales manager for Barratt West Midlands said: "We're glad we have been able to help Mike and Victoria move to their new home at Bracken Gardens.

"Movemaker is ideal for those looking to move up to a larger home, but are struggling to find a buyer for their existing property, or simply want to cut out all the hassle of selling the property independently."

Bracken Gardens has a range of one-bedroom apartments priced at £79,950, two-bedroom apartments priced at £105,950, three-bedroom houses from £169,950 and four-bedroom houses at £194,950.

Evergreen shrub provides interest through the year

Pyracantha or firethorn as it's also know as is a delight this time of year

EVERGREEN foliage, dainty white flowers and bright autumn berries make this spiny shrubs a must-have in any garden, particularly if you want to help feed the birds.

From late spring to mid-summer, flat clusters of small open flowers appear, followed by berries in vivid shades of orange, scarlet and golden yellow, which can persist through the winter.

Pyracanthas are spreading or upright in habit so you can grow them as free-standing shrubs, hedging or trained against a wall or fence in a fan or espalier shape.

They like fertile, well-drained soil in full sun or partial shade and will tolerate north-facing walls. Prune free-standing shrubs in late winter or early spring by removing shoots that spoil the shape.

Good varieties include P. 'Soleil d'Or', an upright variety with yellow berries, and P. 'Orange Glow', which produces deep orange berries.

Great tasting knobbly veg

Despite its rather ugly appearance, celeriac has a tasty creamy texture

ANYONE who hasn't tried a delicious celeriac, garlic and potato mash as an accompaniment to any winter-warming dish, from sausages to roast meats, is missing a real treat.

Celeriac is a knobbly winter root which can be harvested until March.

The flesh - crispy when raw, silky smooth when cooked - has a delicate taste which suggests the flavours of celery with a slight nuttiness.

Sow the seed indoors in late March in trays of compost, not earlier as the plants tend to run to seed.

Moisture

Transplant into seed trays when two true leaves have developed and grow on at 55F until mid-April, when they can be placed in a cold frame to harden off, ready to be planted out in May.

Plant out in a prepared bed spacing the plants 12in apart with 15in between the rows.

Mulch with well-rotted manure or compost to retain moisture and ensure that they are kept well watered, or they will run to seed.

In early autumn, draw soil up around the stems to blanch them.

Lift towards the end of autumn and store in boxes of moist peat in a frost-free place to be used as needed during the winter. In most areas you can cover the roots with straw and lift as required until early spring.

No upward chain on sale of bungalow

A TWO bedroom semi-detached bungalow with views over fields but in need of upgrading is on the market priced at £165,000, and with no upward chain.

The property is on Coniston Road, Palmers Cross, Wolverhampton, and benefits from double glazing and central heating (where specified), a tandem garage and pleasant gardens.

The lounge, 13ft 10in by 12ft, has a gas fire and tiled fireplace, while the breakfast kitchen – 11ft 11in by 10ft 11in – has a range of fitted wall and base cupboards with roll edge work surfaces, inset sink and drainer, gas cooker point and plumbing for washing machine.

Driveway

There are two bedrooms and a bathroom with panel bath, pedestal wash basin and WC and a garage in tandem with a second garage.

Outside to the front is a lawn plus borders and a driveway, and to the rear a spacious garden with lawn, patio, borders, vegetable patch and greenhouse. Call Rees Page on 01902 577777 for more details.

This two-bedroomed bungalow on Coniston Road presents an ideal chance to add value to a property

CHRONICLE MOTORING Powered by motors.co.uk

You could benefit from Vauxhall's extended warranty. It is available in 12, 24 and 36 months terms

New extended warranty covers older Vauxhalls

OWNERS of older Vauxhalls can protect themselves from the risk of mechanical or electrical failures for one, two or three years with the new Vauxhall extended warranty.

The new extended warranty from Vauxhall provides comprehensive cover for a range of major mechanical and electrical components, for vehicles that are under seven years old with less than 70,000 miles on the clock when the warranty is purchased.

The new warranty is available in 12, 24 or 36-month terms and ceases at 100,000 miles in line with the lifetime warranty on new Vauxhall vehicles. The extended warranty covers an unlimited number of claims up to the purchase price of the vehicle.

Genuine

The Vauxhall extended warranty contains no hidden extras, with full parts and labour costs included and owners can rest assured that only manufacturer-approved genuine Vauxhall replacement parts will be used for any warranty repairs.

Owners are provided with a courtesy car for up to seven days (after the first 24 hours) while their vehicle is being repaired under warranty and also receive up to 60 days of cover per year within European Union and European Free Trade Association countries.

The new Vauxhall extended warranty is available at the following recommended retail prices: £259 including VAT, £399 including VAT and £529 including VAT for the 12, 24 and 36-month products respectively and can be transferred to a new owner for just £25 if the vehicle is sold in a private sale.

Motorists should contact their local Vauxhall retailer for further information.

New Seat compact comes with a pedigree

SEAT has introduced the Ibiza Cupra. Shown first as a concept during April's Beijing International Automotive Exhibition, the Cupra is now unveiled in barely touched production form.

The Ibiza Cupra is a package that's simultaneously compact and versatile, making it an extremely compelling day-to-day performance car. Performance is scintillating, with a 0-62mph time of just 6.9 seconds and a top speed of 142mph, yet it is exceptionally efficient, with average fuel consumption of 47.9 mpg.

Due to arrive in the UK in January 2013 priced at £18,825, with order books opening next week, the new Ibiza Cupra follows more than 16 years of heritage. The Cupra name was born in 1996 as a special, top-of-the-line Ibiza built to commemorate Seat's World Rally Championship victory in the 2.0-litre category. Since then a Cupra has always featured in the Seat model line-up, with the name adorning both the Ibiza and Leon ranges.

Supercharger

Powered by a 1.4-litre TSI petrol engine that develops 180PS and 250Nm, owing to a turbocharger and a supercharger as well as direct injection, the latest Ibiza Cupra is truly worthy of the name, and begins the next chapter of the Cupra success story.

The state-of-the-art TSI power unit is a compact piece of hi-tech equipment that guarantees exceptionally refined performance during day-to-day driving, while a unique sound actuator in the exhaust system allows for an extra sporty sound when the driver desires it. And for extra driver involvement, the seven-speed DSG twin-clutch automatic transmission, with its extremely short shift times, can be operated via paddles mounted behind the steering wheel.

The chassis of the Ibiza Cupra has been tuned for maximum agility and precision. The ride height has been lowered compared to the standard car, and an optional AP Performance braking system is available, offering remarkable stopping power.

An XDS electronic differential lock reduces the tendency to understeer and improves handling through fast corners, and an ESP electronic stability system incorporating hill start is part of the safety package that comes as standard on the Ibiza Cupra; the car has been awarded the maximum five stars in the Euro NCAP crash test.

The edgy lines of the standard-fit bi-xenon lights are typical of the new Seat design language, while being perfectly integrated into the Ibiza's sculptural form.

The LED daytime running lights trace the line of the headlamps to deliver a unique light signature, as do the LED rear lights. The bi-xenon headlamp technology delivers perfect illumination, while cornering lights are integrated into the large fog lamps.

The side view of the three-door coupé is brought to life by the sharply defined lines and edges, with the muscular rear shoulders and exclusive 17in wheels underscoring the car's dynamics.

Benchmark

The black, high-gloss exterior mirrors provide a clear contrast to the paintwork of the Ibiza Cupra, while the powerful rear end underscores once again the special role of the Ibiza Cupra as the new benchmark for compact cars – a broad bumper frames the substantial, matte black diffuser incorporating the trapezoidal exhaust outlet.

The emotional power of the exterior design is repeated in the interior of the Ibiza Cupra, in its extremely minimalist, clearly structured cockpit; the exceptional feeling of quality, the ergonomic excellence and the precision of the workmanship all underscore Seat's dedication to detail. The new sports steering wheel features the Cupra logo, and the shift paddles for the DSG transmission are within easy reach of the driver's fingertips. Additionally, the Cupra features unique sports seats with optional two-colour leather upholstery.

The entertainment system in the Ibiza Cupra is completely new – the high-performance audio system is enhanced by the innovative Seat Portable System. The highly functional unit, which debuted in the Mii city car, is removable for mobile use yet perfectly integrated into the vehicle electronics system. Its extensive functions include a navigation system, Bluetooth audio streaming, a Micro SD card slot for music storage, hands-free phone system with voice control, and an on-board computer.

As the flagship car of the Ibiza range, the Cupra gets a number of standard equipment items over and above the Ibiza FR, which itself is a generously equipped model.

The new Skoda Citigo is available in 60bhp and 75bhp engines

The Skoda Citigo has an exceptionally spacious interior

City car that is practical and delivers on economy

By Bob Hickman

SKODA has introduced yet another vehicle to its already expanding portfolio of excellent cars and suggests that Citigo redefines what is possible with yet another niche market car categorised as a city car.

It has very small exterior dimensions with exceptional interior space, offering ample accommodation for four adults. Add in great manoeuvrability, exceptional comfort and quite high levels of equipment, and Skoda says that the Citigo has been designed to deal with almost anything that life can throw at it.

We are living in difficult times with recession and austerity, and people are looking to see where they can save a few pennies – and in motoring we can save not pennies but pounds.

Petrol prices are continually spiraling upwards so we need to eke out more miles per gallon. The more miles per gallon, the less excise duty and insurance we pay.

The Citigo is an all-new city car, it is a unique design and it maximises space on a very small footprint. There is little doubt that the market for city cars is going to be the new growth area. A few years ago it was off-roaders and then SUVs, people carriers, now the marketplace is for small cars but with maximum carrying capacity. You only need to look around and you can see other manufacturers have already entered into this important market sector

The amount of space in the Citigo is very good. There is plenty of room for four adults and this contained in a vehicle a mere 3,540mm long and 1,640mm wide. I actually had a sit in the back of the vehicle with my wife and we were comfortable in the rear. We had sufficient head and shoulder room, and importantly legroom. And even allowing for the seats in a driving position that I normally occupy as a six-footer, there was still space for the rear passengers.

The boot is not over generous at 251 litres but when you drop the seats it rises dramatically. But do not overlook the fact that this is primarily a city car, it is not designed for huge luggage capacity, but it is sufficient to get the daily or weekly shopping in.

One feature that the Citigo will reward you with is its ability to find car parking spaces. Being so small, spaces that you would normally think impossible, can swallow up the Citigo.

Entertaining

The driving dynamics are quite entertaining for such a small car, the engine is a three-cylinder 999cc and produces 60bhp. There is also a further option of more power but the smaller derivative will enable you to reach 62mph in 14 seconds and it runs out of puff at 99mph. There is a 75bhp option available and this knocks a second off the 0-60 time and raises your top speed to about 106mph.

Fuel consumption figures claimed for both vehicles is in the region of mid-60s on the combined cycle. Phenomenal fuel figures are quoted, but as we all know these figures are achieved in laboratory conditions, but we should still be obtaining figures in the low-50s, which is exceptional.

The important CO2 figures are given as 105 and 108 respectively for the two power derivatives, so you can expect a low road fund licence, and this is another bonus to reduce motoring costs. Not quite the nil rated but not far away at a mere £20 per annum.

There are three versions available – S, SE and Elegance, entry level being the S with good, old fashioned wind-up windows, and sadly, no air conditioning. The SE is probably the derivative to go for, it benefits from electric front windows, remote central locking, manual air conditioning.

I really do not want a vehicle anymore without central locking, with wind-up windows and without air conditioning, things that we now take for granted. So I would avoid the S level, although all the models have ABS and four air bags, and all models except the entry level have an Electronic Brake Sensor facility.

You have to make a further choice between a three-door and a five, and I think this will interest a lot of car buyers. It is always easier to get in and out of small city car when you have five doors.

My choice would be the five-door middle of the range SE. As a further sweetener towards downsizing and the Citigo, what about a five-door SE 999cc engine with an automatic gearbox? I don't think you could get a better small package.

Skoda has introduced what they suggest is a simple pricing structure, but I do find it a little complicated. The entry level Citigo three-door starts things off at £7,630 and the top specification Citigo Elegance is priced at £10,415. Skoda then gives you a list of various options dependent on your derivative – Comfort packs, Style packs, Summer packs, Safety packs and all manner of extras that you can build into your car.

All in all, the Citigo will win friends and with Skoda's reputation now of being manufacturers of superb, reliable, quality vehicles, I see another success for the company.

Telephone 01543 422524.
You were so good, so very rare, content in your home and always there. Kind, unselfish, ready to aid, the dearest man God ever made.
He had a smile for everyone and heart as good as gold.
Forever in our hearts.

Acknowledgements

CORFIELD
Anne
I would like to thank all Family and Friends who helped Sarah, Daniel, Gav and myself celebrate Anne's life on Friday, November 9.
I would personally like to thank all the girls from St Giles Care Agency for their professionalism and care they gave to Anne and the many laughs we had together, also all the Staff from St Giles' Hospice, especially Helen Cupples and Fran Parrott for not only supporting Anne but for all the support you gave to me.
Thank you to Lisa Robinson and all the District Nursing Team from Hednesford Valley for all their help in the care they gave to Anne.
I would also like to thank Dr I.B. Bhatt and his Staff and all the Staff at the Northwood Pharmacy in Chasetown for all the help and assistance they gave Anne and myself.
Through your generous donations we collected £740 for St Giles' Hospice.
Thank you all.
Steve Corfield.

FELLOWS
Elsie
Husband Bill and Family wish to thank everyone for cards, messages of sympathy and support given to them at this sad time, also for attending the Funeral Service and donations of £271 for the Osteoporosis Society.

LUCAS—Raymond Lawton. Josie and Family would like to thank so many Family and Friends for attending Ray's Funeral, also for donations of £500 to the Chemotheraphy Unit at Stafford Hospital.
Love to all.

OWEN
Muriel
Paul and Jackie would like to thank Family and Friends for support at the loss of our Mom.
Thanks to A.J. Sellman and the Reverend David Gethin.
Special thanks to Joan, June, Marie, Dave, Jean Marg and Sue.
God bless you all.

NOTICE TO READERS

Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A CAREER IN SALES?

The Midland News Association, publishers of the UK's largest evening newspaper, is looking for field sales and tele-sales executives to join their advertising sales teams at their Cannock office

You should be competitive, imaginative, influential, persuasive, confident and ideally have sales experience. Meeting people and being able to put them at ease and influence their decisions should be something you enjoy, as the role involves advising local businesses about the range of advertising options available to ensure they achieve the best possible results. Each position will receive a competitive annual salary with the opportunity to earn a generous bonus for on-target achievements. In addition, field sales roles will also be entitled to a company car.

There is a company pension scheme and five weeks annual holiday, together with all the benefits you would associate with working for one of the largest and most trusted local companies. We have a structured career path which rewards successful achievement and we are committed to providing ongoing training and support to help you with your career progression.

Please apply in writing enclosing your current CV to the Personnel Department, Midland News Association, Queen Street, Wolverhampton WV1 1ES stating if your are applying for the field sales or tele-sales role.

You can also email your application to personnel@expressandstar.co.uk

Closing date 30th November

Staffordshire County Council

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED)
ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991
WALKMILL LANE/NORTH STREET/NEW STREET, CANNOCK
DIVERSION OF VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council, on 13 November 2012, made an Order the effect of which is to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in that length of:

(a) Walkmill Lane for a distance of approximately 140 metres from its junction with the A5 Watling Street,

(b) North Street for a distance of approximately 105 metres from its junction with the A5 Watling Street

(c) New Street for a distance of approximately 90 metres from its junction with the A5 Watling Street unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works; or unless the vehicle requires access to premises on the length of road or is being used for police, fire brigade or ambulance purposes. Pedestrian access will be maintained.

The preferred alternative route for traffic will be available via:

(a) A5 Watling Street, Lakeside Boulevard, Walkmill Lane and vice versa, and

(b) & (c) A5 Watling Street, Delta Way, Longford Road and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON TUESDAY 20 NOVEMBER 2012, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. THE CLOSURE WILL BE EFFECTIVE AS FOLLOWS:

20 November 2012 at 18:45 to 07:00 hours on 21 November 2012
21–23 November 2012 daily at 19:00 to 07:00 the following morning
24 November 2012 at 18:00 to 09:15 hours on 25 November 2012

It is anticipated that the works will be completed by Sunday 25 November 2012.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the loop cutting works on A5 Watling Street, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

ADVERTISEMENTS
CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE

1. Midland News Association Limited All publications in this group are published by the Midland News Association Limited, registered office Queen Street, Wolverhampton WV1 1ES ('the Company') and this is the address to which any notices should be sent.
2. Acceptance The Company will only accept advertising on these standard terms and no other contract terms or conditions will apply other than those which are implied by statute and cannot lawfully be excluded. In particular the Company will not accept advertising on the basis of advertiser's terms and conditions.
3. Content of Advertisements All advertisements must be legal decent honest and truthful. Advertisements must comply with the British Code of Advertising Practice and all other codes under the general supervision of the Advertising Standards Authority. Advertisements must comply with the requirements of all current legislation including but not limited to the following:- All advertisements must clearly differentiate between trade and private advertising as required by the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must comply with the Consumer Credit (Advertisement) Regulations 1980.
All descriptions of goods must be accurate and in no way infringe the provisions of the Trades Descriptions Act 1968.
Advertisements must not contain any material which is defamatory. You must have permission to use any material contained in your advertisement and must not infringe the copyright moral rights or any other right of any third party.
The Company reserves the right to refuse to carry any advertisement or to require amendment of any advertisement in its absolute discretion.
4. Appearance of Advertisements Whilst the Company makes every effort to comply with requests, publication on a particular date or in a particular position cannot be guaranteed. The Company reserves the right to alter, suspend, cancel or reject an advertisement at its discretion even after the same has been accepted for publication without being liable to compensate you. You will not be charged for any advertisement which does not appear. If only a part of a series of advertisements appears you will only be charged for the advertisements in the series which actually appear. The Company does not guarantee the publication or extent of supporting editorial and your obligation to pay for advertising will not under any circumstances be dependent upon the appearance or content of editorial. No liability will be accepted for non-appearance of editorial. The Company does not guarantee that advertising will not appear for similar or the same subject matter to your advertisement and no liability shall be accepted as a result of such advertising appearing. It is the advertiser's responsibility to provide any amended copy, whether by electronic or other format, and the Company does not guarantee that it will be able to or will agree to modify, amend or alter any file or copy supplied to it.
5. Liability The Company's liability for any loss or damage caused by any error or omission in the advertisement or any other breach of contract shall not in any circumstances exceed a full refund of any price paid by the advertiser to the Company for the publication of the advertisement or the cost of a further or corrective advertisement of the same type as that which originally appeared. Where a series of advertisements is booked the Company's liability shall not in any circumstances exceed the value of the first advertisement in the series. In the event of any error, misprint or omission in the publication of the advertisement the Company will either re-publish the advertisement or the relevant parts of the advertisement or make a reasonable refund of or adjustment to the cost of the advertisement. If the error does not materially detract from the advertisement then no re-publication, refund or adjustment will be made. It is the advertiser's responsibility to check the content of advertisements and the Company will not accept any liability for loss or damage, or obligation to republish or make a refund or adjustment, arising from re-publication of an advertisement containing an error, misprint or omission which has not been identified by the advertiser after first publication.
6. Box numbers The Company accepts no liability for loss or damage caused by delay in forwarding or omission to forward to the advertiser replies to Box Numbers. Box Numbers must not be used for sending goods, distributing circulars or communications from agents. The Company reserves the right to open and inspect all replies to Box Number and to destroy goods, circulars of communications from agents which are discovered during an inspection.
7. Inspection The Company shall be entitled at any time to inspect any goods or services advertised and may decline to carry further advertising if such inspection is not permitted or if in the Company's opinion the provision of further advertising facilities is not appropriate in view of the nature or quality of the goods or services.
8. Indemnity The advertiser, including any advertising agency involved in placing any advertisement, warrants that it has permission to use for publication by electronic and printed means all material which is included in the advertisement. The advertiser and any advertising agency involved in placing any advertisement agree to indemnify the Company in respect of all charges, costs, claims or damage arising out of the publication of the advertisement, whether the same result from actual or threatened legal action or from some other cause.
9. Cancellation On a request for cancellation or amendment of a classified advertisement being accepted, you will be given a cancellation or amendment number which must be quoted in all subsequent correspondence. Payment of the originally agreed price will be required in full for any advertisement in relation to which the advertiser is unable to supply a valid cancellation or amendment number. Cancellation can only be accepted if the Company is notified of the cancellation by no later than the following deadlines:-
Lineage, Semi Display - By no later than 6.30pm on the working day prior to publication. Advertisements to appear on Monday must be cancelled by 10 am on the preceding Saturday
Classified Display - By no later than 24 hours before the date of publication
Colour/Features - By no later than 10 clear days before the date of publication
To cancel Lineage, Semi Display and Classified Display advertisements please telephone 01902 317878. To cancel Colour/Features advertisements please speak to the Representative through whom the advertisement was booked.
10. Rates Advertising rates are as laid out in the Company's current rate card which is available on request from the Company's offices. The rates may be varied from time to time in the Company's absolute discretion and without prior notification of the intended variation. The revised rate will be charged for any advertising ordered after the date of variation.
All gross advertising rates except classified lineage and semi-display are subject to a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance levy payable by advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
11. Payment The Company reserves the right to require pre-payment as a condition of any advertisement being published. Where pre-payment is not required unless different credit terms have been agreed with the advertiser in writing payment must be made within 14 days of the date of issue of the Company's invoice. An additional £2.00 booking charge will be payable if the invoice is not paid in full within this 14 day period.
Any additional credit facilities which are offered are at the Company's absolute discretion. The advertiser's liability shall be for the full amount of all advertising ordered and shall not be limited to the amount of any credit limit which the Company may impose.
Payment may be made by [method] cash, cheque or credit/debit card. The advertiser's obligation to pay for other items on an account shall not be affected by the existence of any query over an individual item within that account.
12. Data Protection Act The advertiser's details will be retained by the Company for the purposes of administering our accounts records and so that the Company may notify the advertiser of future advertising opportunities which may be of interest to you. By placing advertising with the Company the advertiser agrees to your details being used for this purpose.
13. Applicable Law These conditions of acceptance shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

Academy's winning lesson

Division One

NELSON'S second win of the season moved them up to fifth after they beat bottom team Chase Spartans 2-0. Gavin Jones scored in each half.

Division Two

CK Academy went two points clear at the top by defeating Broomhill Albion 3-2 and replaced them at the top. Bridge FC beat Lea Hall 5-3 with top striker Lee Taylor adding four goals to his name. Tom Barker also scored as Bridge stayed third.

Division Three

New team Royal Exchange won again, inflicting a first defeat of the season on leaders TNT. Ryan Chapman and Ryan Roberts scored to bag the three points for Exchange who now climb to fifth after only four games and may well belong in a higher division.

Cannock Chase League

Division Four

Cannock Social recorded a fine 3-0 victory over leaders Hazel Slade and climbed two places. Two goals from Matty Ash and one from Dan Philips dented Slade's title hopes.

Green Heath went three points clear after beating Hope & Anchor 2-0 with goals from Rob Meachen and Arron Evans. Brinsford beat Essington 2-0.

The Castle beat FC Fern 5-3 with goals from Jo Cartwright, Kert Jewhurst, Jake Monarch and Reece Joice (2). Bell & Bottle won their first game, beating Woody's 3-0. Dan Lawley, Ash Gilbert and a bullet of a header from Jake Smith grabbed Bottle's first win of the season.

Division Five

Prairie Farm got their third win of the season by beating title chasers Pied Piper 8-4. Danny Kay scored four with a goal each for Luke Russell, Dave Harvey, Daren Lycett and player-secretary Lee Cooper. All this after trailing 2-1! Bridgtown Social climbed four places to second after beating Ath Bridge 4-1. Lee Lewellyn bagged a double and Nick Hodgkiss and Neil Whitehouse added one each.

Conor hits a hat-trick as Tom shows how to Cope

Churchfields U11 1 St Joseph's Hednesford U11 5

ST JOSEPH'S began the defence of their Cannock & Rugeley District league title with an excellent victory over Churchfields.

Despite falling behind to a well-worked goal, they fought back and produced a splendid second half of action.

A hat-trick from Conor Williams and further goals by Isaac Chave and man of the match Tom Cope ensured their campaign got off to a good start.

Highfields U11 Girls 0 St Joseph's Hednesford U11 Girls 1

St Joseph's edged this hard-fought game with a fine goal late in the first half from Charlotte Vale-Onslow.

She found the net with an excellent strike from the edge of the box.

Highfields had their chances in an even second half, but St Joseph's – buoyed by a player of the match performance from Becky Loundes – held on.

Early lead in key game fails to halt champs

Cannock 3 East Grinstead 5

CANNOCK suffered a blow to their English Hockey League ambitions by losing a three-goal lead and falling to defeat against the reigning champions.

It was a key game, with Cannock sitting in third spot and the visitors keen to improve on their fifth place.

East Grinstead applied most of the early pressure but, as the half progressed, Cannock started to turn the tables.

Cannock hockey

Cannock scored their first through a Peter Jackson penalty corner. Just before half-time they added a second, through a Dave Harris penalty stroke, after Arjun Drayon Chana was scythed down as he weaved his way towards goal.

Ten minutes into the second half Cannock made it 3-0 with another Harris penalty after Dave Beckett was pushed to the ground as he prepared to shoot.

Cannock continued to have chances. But East Grinstead then converted two penalty corners in quick succession.

A three-minute period of errors saw them gift the visitors three goals at a time when they should have shut up shop in a bid to hold on to the points.

Favourable results elsewhere mean Cannock remain third, although the chasing pack are now closer.

Cannock 5
Olton & West Warwicks 0

Loughborough Students 3
Cannock 3

A golden goal winner for hat-trick hero Will Fleet put Cannock into round three of the England Hockey second team cup.

Fleet fired Cannock's first with a shot to the top-right corner of the net. Josh Gunnell bagged his second after Jack Middleton's weaving run presented him with an open goal.

Fleet then scored his second with a tap-in after some impressive approach play.

But the second half saw Loughborough score three goals to leave the teams all square after the 70 minutes.

Fleet's golden goal gave him his treble and his side victory.

Harborne 2 Cannock 2

Cannock thirds bossed the game from D to D, but their failure to convert chances cost them top spot in the league.

A double-figure tally of short corners passed them by and they failed to create many clear-cut opportunities as the form that saw them score 14 the previous week evaded them.

It's a penalty stroke to Cannock as Dave Beckett is brought down. Dave Harris converted, but Cannock lost 5-3

Cannock 2 Burton 2

Cannock fourths' 100 per cent record at the top of Ener-G Premier Central League was dented by the visitors.

Cannock fell behind when a cross which looked too high prompted hesitation in the home defence and gave Burton a chance they did not miss.

Cannock soon levelled with a fine left-post shot from George Southall. The second half saw more pressure and Cannock eventually broke through when a shot from Louie Morris was body-blocked by a Burton defender and Jamie Roberts converted the resulting penalty stroke.

Near the end, Cannock's defence stopped in anticipation of a free-hit for use of the feet. But there was no award and Burton scored to claim a draw.

Stourport 0 Cannock 4

Cannock fifths extended their good run with an impressive victory at Stourport. Cannock controlled the game throughout but were unable to break through until the second half.

They finally got on the scoresheet when Jack Myatt rounded off a slick corner routine.

Loz Perry's reverse stick strike brought the second and Gary Stacey and Matt Jarocki then wrapped it up.

Cannock 11 Barton 0

The sixths, without a league fixture, took on a team from the division above and swamped them in the second half.

Cannock were two up at the interval through Paul Martin's brace.

But in the second period the goals flew in with two apiece for Gurpal Mann, Cameron Beswick and Raff Moscatiello and one each for skipper Don Clarke, Liam Middleton and Mark Cotterill.

Cannock Futures 6 Stone 1

Cannock led 3-0 at half-time with a brace from George Neillist and a goal by Jake Bilson.

Stone pulled one back, but Jordan Joiner restored the three-goal cushion and Alex Kingston's double completed the scoring.

Farm top with their harvest of six goals

Junior football

Church Farm U11 6
Erdington Star U11 1

CHURCH FARM went top of the Shield League with two goals from Smith and one a apiece for Williams, McHale, Edge and Round.

Church Farm U9 1
Chasetown Scholars U9 1

A closely-fought game saw the first draw of the season for Church Farm. They scored in the first half through Harry Buzzard but failed to clear their lines in the second half, resulting in a tap-in equaliser for Chasetown. Buzzard and Luke Benger Pearson, who was outstanding in goal, shared the man of the match award.

Heath Hayes U15 2
Rugeley Rangers U15 0

Second division Rugeley made Heath Hayes work hard for this victory in the third round of the Lichfield League Challenge Cup. Goals came towards the end of each half, through Felix Wilson and Curtis Shipp.

Four Oaks Falcons U11 2
Heath Hayes U11 2

Hayes battled back twice to earn a creditable Shield draw against a side lying third in Lichfield League's top division. Sam Rogers scored twice for the Second Division side, with Nathan Smith's saves earning him man of the match.

Rugeley Rangers Lions U9 6
AFC Lichfield U9 2

Hat-tricks by Billy Mackenzie and Jake Poole secured the points for Rangers. A man-of-the match display by captain William Burns, who was assisted well by Seb Mitchell, kept the Lichfield forwards quiet in the second half. Lichfield's keeper did well with saves from Rad Knight and Harry Smart.

Football Futures U12 2
Wyrley Juniors United U12 4

Futures took the lead, but Wyrley levelled when Sam Foreman's pass cleared the home defence and sent Tom Wheeldon away to slot past the advancing keeper. Again Futures scored, but Wheeldon levelled with a shot off a post. The home team pressed hard in the second period, but Wheeldon broke to complete his hat-trick and an own goal made it 4-2.

Chasetown Scholars U10 2
Brereton Town U10 0

Much-improved Brereton Town made the Scholars work hard for their victory after losing the last meeting 9-1. Brereton's player of the match was Ella Johnson.

Novices make the grade at judo date

NOVICE judo players from the Meiji School of Excellence achieved success in a grading session at Stockland Green, Birmingham.

Most of Meiji's ungraded judokai, who have only been taking part for the past few months, took part along with three graded players.

Red to White belt 2 yellow bars – Jamie Welsby, Jake Stevens, Tia Stevens, Daniel Matheson and Maisie Ponting. Red to Yellow belt - Luke Matheson, Conner Byrne, George Rowley, Paige Stevens, Bradley Turner and Chloe Wooley.

Joe Preece made the switch from red to orange.

Of the three higher-graded players, Meena Harrington went from yellow two bars to orange two green bars and Reece Harrington orange two bars to green belt with two blue bars. Luke Turner moved from green two bars to blue belt one brown bar.

Two other Meiji judokai entered the BJA Open at Kidderminster – and each impressed with a medal.

Thomas Hudson took gold and Kyah Hudson silver.

Meiji train at Burntwood Leisure Centre from 6-8pm on Wednesdays and at Hayes Green Community Centre, Heath Hayes on Fridays, 6.30-8.30pm.

Two-goals Obeng back with a bang

Droylsden 1 Rushall Olympic 2

TWO GOALS by Ahmed Obeng kept Pics' FA Trophy dream alive against Blue Square North's Droylsden.

A month ago he collapsed in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier fixture against Chorley but his return was Roy of the Rovers stuff.

The win gives Rushall a trip to Blue Square Premier Wrexham on November 24.

Droylsden thought they had taken the lead after 24 minutes but officials ruled a drive had not crossed the line after hitting the bar.

On 77 minutes Obeng fired in from the back post. Droylsden's Jimmy Derbyshire was red-carded for a high, two-footed challenge on Josh Craddock before Obeng hit his second. With five minutes left Droylsden scored a penalty.

Hednesford's Neil Harvey keeps his shirt on

Spill but few thrills in victory

Romulus 1 Hednesford T 2

HEDNESFORD TOWN secured their passage into the first round proper of the FA Trophy with a goal in each half from Dave MacPherson and substitute Aaron Rey.

Pitmen boss Rob Smith saw his side progress despite performing below their recent high standards.

"It was a scrappy affair, we made it a little uncomfortable for ourselves in the second half but we're through which is the most important thing," he said.

Hednesford, playing on a difficult and unfamiliar artificial pitch, were the better side in the opening 45 minutes and had numerous attempts on goal.

But until Lewis Exall spilled a Jamey Osborne shot straight to MacPherson the scores stayed level. Nathan Woolfe and MacPherson shot over and wide from distance in the first 15 minutes before tricky wing play by Osborne down the right set up Luke Bottomer, who blazed over from 12 yards on 21 minutes.

He was having his most impressive game for the Pitmen since signing from Tamworth this season but it was Neil Harvey who had Hednesford's best chance of the half when he shot inches wide after MacPherson's initial attempt was blocked.

Exall was fully extended by Osborne on 42 minutes with a curling shot from distance before the deadlock was broken on the stroke of half-time when MacPherson reacted quickest to Exall's mistake and slammed the ball in from six yards.

The home side came out after the break with renewed purpose and looked to capitalise on a Pitmen performance that lacked the cutting edge of the first half.

Hednesford centre-half Liam Francis shot over the bar on 71 minutes. The goal that secured the victory came with nine minutes remaining when Ben Bailey made a rare venture up the right wing and crossed for Rey to score at the second attempt.

Dan O'Callaghan scored in the 85th minute for Romulus. But the Pitmen saw out the victory with Sam Barnes to thank for clearing a ball off the line late on.

Win comes from a try and boot of Grocott

Rugeley 17 Essington 3

RUGELEY marched into the next round of the Rubery Owen Cup with a good home win over Essington.

Dave Bagnall's try midway through the second half gave the home team a 14-point lead they did not relinquish.

Rugeley began well and forced a 15th-minute penalty in the visitors' 22-metre area. Adam Grocott stepped up to put three points on the board.

Essington came back at the home side, but were unable to penetrate their defence.

Rugeley then upped the ante in the pack and continued to make ground.

The pressure began to force errors and after 20 minutes they won another penalty, again kicked by Grocott, to lead 6-0.

It was the same story five minutes before the end of the half. Another penalty, another successful attempt by Grocott and Rugeley were 9-0 up at half-time.

Essington got their only points of the match five minutes after the restart when they slotted a penalty.

But Rugeley sprang back to life and forced yet another penalty. Grocott maintained his 100 per cent accuracy.

The home team continued in charge with good defence and slick ball handling.

This brought the game's only try after 61 minutes, when second row Chris Dynda intercepted and set up Bagnall for the run to the line. Grocott missed the conversion.

Essington regained composure and played with an extra man after No 8 Mitchell Everall was sin-binned.

But Rugeley closed out the game in comfort.

Jodie's strike leads the way

Shenstone Ladies 6
Madeley White Star 2

SHENSTONE suffered an early setback and a troubled first half. They fell behind after just two minutes and, despite leading 3-2 at the break through goals by Sophie Wilding, Lissy Bailes and Loren Evans, struggled to get into their stride.

In an improved second period Jodie Kinsey lashed in a long-range free-kick. They camped in the visitors' half and secured the win with Evans's second goal and one from Jade Arber.

Place in fourth round denied after first loss

Kesteven 30 Burntwood 20

BURNTWOOD'S first defeat of the season cost them a place in the fourth round draw of the RFU Senior Vase.

A big defeat looked likely early in the second half as they trailed 22-6 but yellow cards cost both sides and let the visitors make a real game of it. Kesteven, also going into the game unbeaten record, capitalised on errors.

Having missed a penalty on three minutes, they got a first try four minutes later.

An awkward bounce from a tapped line-out was seized for a Kesteven flanker to touch down.

An Aza Dune't penalty on 16 minutes followed Zak Shingler and Graham Shelley exchanging passes into the home 22.

Another line-out error gave Kesteven a scrum on the 10-metre line and the same flanker found a gap for a converted try.

Trouble

On 30 minutes the Burntwood scrum was in trouble, as Kesteven won possession to create an overlap for a try.

Dune't kicked a penalty after he, Shingler and Ben Holt featured in attack.

Holt had an ankle injury forcing a shuffle in the backs with Rob Jones coming on at full-back. With the slope in their favour in the second period, Burntwood were into home territory via the Shelleys and Craig Prosser.

A Dune't penalty missed. A loose kick out of defence, set Kesteven up for a fourth try and a 22-6 lead.

Graham Shelley ran from a scrum up to the home five-metre line. From another scrum, Shelley, Taylor and Jack Neal went close before the home hooker's sin-binning. Opting for the scrum they drove over for Shelley to score and Dune't to convert. Eight minutes later a home player was yellow-carded, for a late hit on Lloyd Shelley.

Burntwood RUFC

Two minutes later Shingler tapped a five-metre penalty award and fed Elliott Tomlinson who scored. Dune't converted to cut the deficit to two points.

With Kesteven at full numbers Burntwood lost Tomlinson to a yellow card. The penalty was converted to put Kesteven five up.

Kesteven stretched the visitors' defence before crossing in the left corner.

Burntwood were not helped as Matt Sishton went off with damaged ribs.

On Saturday, Burntwood resume league action, welcoming Handsworth to The Sportsway. The seconds make the reverse trip and the Development Squad play Rugeley seconds away.

Points shared as Wellecomme on target again

Sheffield FC 2 Chasetown 2

CHASETOWN took a good point back from Yorkshire, but it could easily have been three in an entertaining game, writes Paul Mullins.

The Scholars made a positive start and it was no surprise when they took the lead in the 27th minute.

Mark Branch curled in a beautiful free-kick to the near post, which caught Sheffield on the hop, and Theo Robinson reacted quickest to fire in.

Within 90 seconds, Chasetown had doubled their lead.

Scott Rickards played a neat ball into Robinson and his well-time pass to Nick Wellecomme saw the club's leading scorer chip over the advancing Liam Flynn – his ninth goal of the season, and eighth in eight league games.

Sheffield got a goal back two minutes before the break when a combination of Andy Gascoigne and defender Richard Teesdale diverted the ball beyond Ryan Price.

Joy for Chasetown players – and supporters – after Nick Wellecomme scores

Three minutes after the break, Sheffield were all-square when Shoquilee McKenzie let rip with a left-foot shot that gave Price no chance. Roared on by a 300-plus crowd, including 20 who journeyed from Milan to support the world's oldest football club, Sheffield were in the ascendancy. However, the visitors should have regained the lead in the 54th minute but Danny Smith fired narrowly over the bar. Then, Chasetown had the first of two penalty shouts turned down.

On the hour, Chasetown were inches away from 3-2. Smith went round the keeper Flynn but his rolled effort was cleared off the line.

Sheffield retaliated and a double block on the line and a goalmouth scramble kept the score at parity but it was the Scholars who went closest to snatching the three points through Robinson's drive.

Woeful Hayes in heavy defeat

Heath Hayes 1
Highgate United 8

AFTER the euphoria of a midweek victory over Chasetown, Heath Hayes produced a woeful performance in slumping to the heaviest home league defeat in their 49-year history.

Hayes were missing three key players through injury and suspension – but that can be no excuse for a performance which saw them concede three penalties and have two players sent off.

Things well for the home side in this Midland Alliance clash as Craig Hancox gave them a seventh-minute lead and Tom Green and Chris Deakin should both have done better when well placed.

Highgate equalised on 22 minutes when Jake Brown picked up a poor clearance from Brad Grice. His well-struck shot whistled into the roof of the net. Ten minutes later he got a second with another well- taken effort.Moments later, Tom Baggott was adjudged to have tripped Danny Pitt in the box and the striker coolly dispatched the penalty.

Hayes then had Adam Robinson sent off after a rash tackle in the box and this time Brown stepped up to complete his hat-trick from the spot. On the stroke of half-time, Elroy Bennett made it five with another good finish.

Hayes at least tried to make a game of it in the second half, but passes went astray and they looked a pale shadow of the side of recent weeks.

Things got worse on 79 minutes when Tom Baggott was in an off-the-ball incident with Pitt and was dismissed. Pitt converted the penalty. Dan Povey and Dan Dineen completed the humiliation with injury-time goals.

Medals go swimmingly

CHASE Swimming Club are celebrating a haul of medals from the Roebuck open gala at Wolverhampton's Central Baths.

Swimming against a number of top Midlands clubs, the 19-strong Chase contingent went home with 43 medals – 12 gold, 14 silver and 17 bronze.

Head coach Paul Grainger was pleased, especially as many swimmers clocked personal best times.

Chasetown 2 Newcastle T 0

CHASETOWN progressed to a Staffordshire Senior Cup home tie against Heath Hayes with two goals in quick succession in the second half, writes Paul Mullins.

It gives the Scholars a quick chance for revenge, following their defeat to Hayes in the Walsall Senior Cup.

With no game again until November 24, Chasetown manager Craig Harris picked a strong starting line-up on Tuesday.

Within the first two minutes Chasetown had a great chance when Newcastle goalkeeper Dave Parton handled outside the penalty area and Mark Branch's free kick was narrowly over the crossbar. Newcastle responded with a Neville Thompson shot, which came back off Mariusz Kisiel's right hand post, before a minute shy of the half-time interval, Kisiel held on well to a long range effort from Tom France, in a s first half short of clear goalscoring opportunities.

In front of a low crowd, Chasetown lost skipper Richard Teesdale through injury in the 71st minute – a landmark game for the defender, his 200th for the club.

Chasetown finally broke the deadlock 15 minutes from time. Branch played a precise pass through to Theo Robinson, who took the ball round keeper Parton, only to be caught by the Newcastle keeper. Referee Sarginson pointed to the penalty spot and gave Parton his second yellow card.

Darren Twigg took over between the posts and despite going the right way, he was helpless to prevent Branch converting from the spot, for his fifth goal of the season.

Chasetown doubled their lead when Nick Wellecomme's shot from outside the box took a slight deflection off substitute teammate Paul Sullivan, though Wellecomme was credited with his 10th goal of the season. Newcastle had no response and Scholars got their second clean sheet of the season.

PITMEN READY FOR MOORS CHALLENGE

HEDNESFORD TOWN manager Rob Smith has thrown down the gauntlet to Blue Square Bet Conference North outfit Solihull Moors.

The two will clash at Keys Park in the first round of the FA Trophy in two weeks' time. And Smith reckons that his Pitmen side will relish the opportunity to spring a surprise.

With Sunday's 2-1 victory against Romulus, Hednesford have won six games on the bounce and Smith can hardly wait for the Trophy clash on Saturday, November 24.

"Everyone involved at the club was looking for a home draw and that's what we've got, so we have no complaints," said Smith.

"We will certainly give it a right go in front of our own supporters.

"Solihull have bags of ability and I know a lot of their players, but they won't have things all their own way."

Keen

The Pitmen supporters had probably set their hearts on a home draw against a Conference team such as Tamworth, Telford or Kidderminster.

But a tie against a side currently struggling in the league above the Evo-Stik Northern Premier Division Pitmen represents an opportunity that Smith is keen for his in-form team to take.

"Stafford Rangers beat Bradford Park Avenue on Saturday and they are currently doing well after being promoted from our league last year.

"So I don't believe there is too much of a gap between the two divisions," said Smith. "On our day, we can beat anyone."

Hednesford travel to Stocksbridge Park Steels on Saturday to resume league action, looking to close the gap on leaders North Ferriby United before concentrating on the Solihull match the following weekend.

Hednesford Town

Both matches will kick off at 3pm.

Meanwhile, former Walsall manager Paul Merson will be the guest speaker at a sporting dinner to be staged by the club.

The one-time England star, now a television football pundit, will appear at Keys Park with comedian Lea Roberts.

The event runs from 7.30-11.30pm on November 21 and is part of the club's efforts to raise their profile in the local area.

The night will also feature a four-course meal, auction and a raffle in aid of the Midlands Air Ambulance charity.

Club secretary Terry MacMahon said: "Paul Merson is a very well-known personality throughout the Midlands with his connections to Walsall FC and Aston Villa FC during his career.

"Alongside the presence of Lea Roberts, the evening promises to be a thoroughly enjoyable night for all those attending.'

Tickets for the event cost £40 with proceeds going to the club.

Hednesford's Luke Bottomer keeps control of the ball in the Romulus penalty area.

Winner Callum Jones

Callum is on target yet again

YOUNG kickboxer Callum Jones has claimed his second victory within a fortnight.

The 11-year-old from Hednesford took the contest at short notice but emerged triumphant at Jesters Mixed Martial Arts Club in Matlock against home fighter Nathan Powell.

The early rounds could have gone either way with Powell pressing and Jones defending well but Jones stepped up the pace in the final round, a series of kicks all finding the target and winning him the decision.

His instructor Shaun Preece, of Huntington Kickboxing Club, was delighted with Jones's showing.

Preece is recruiting at his new gym on the Buxton's trading estate between Penkridge and Stafford. Visit www.huntingtonkickboxing.co.uk for details.
